

Look out below!

It looks safe enough, but it isn't. Seconds after this picture was taken by The Tribune's Peter Harris, the frame support buckled and the 6-ton boat fell to the ground. Only minor damage resulted however. The craft is owned by Stanley Allan, Toronto and under construction at the residence of Bruce Taylor near Ringwood. —Peter Harris

4-H girls Begin fall project

By Betty Pegg
GREENWOOD — To begin the fall season in 4-H work, the leaders are holding a luncheon and work shop Sept. 25 and 26. The topic is 'being well dressed and well groomed'. Girls 12 years and over are welcome to join. Leaders are — Mrs. Grant Pascoe and Mrs. Ken McTaggart. Mrs. Pascoe attended a training course at Uxbridge last week.

Mrs. B. Mitchell is under doctor's care after a fall on the cement steps at the store.

Anniversary service will be held in Greenwood United Church, Oct. 19.

There will be no regular worship service at Greenwood Sept. 28. The congregation is invited to attend the anniversary at Mr. Zion at 11 a.m. and 7:30 p.m. Rev. Patterson of Whitby is the guest speaker. Sunday School will be held at Greenwood as usual at 9:45 a.m.

Mr. and Mrs. Eddie Pegg spent last Sunday at Pres'quille Point.

Mr. and Mrs. Ron Hoar have returned from Jamaica. They drew the lucky ticket in Toronto, which awarded an expense-paid flight with accommodation and meals. Girl Guides will begin their winter work in October. Nancy Hoar is seeking assistants in this work. Call her at 942-5679.

The Pee-Wee softball team has won the championship for all-Ontario. Mrs. George Griffin has returned from an enjoyable trip to Duluth to visit her brother and family.

Mr. and Mrs. Van Neus are building a new home on the Old Greenwood Road.

Mr. and Mrs. Ken McTaggart and family attended Lindsay Fair, Saturday.

Edward Pegg of Markham celebrated his birthday Sept. 23 at his parents' home on Greenwood Road. Helping to celebrate were Alfred, Barb and Ruth Pegg.

Several Sunday School teachers from here as well as the Rev. Fleetham took advantage of the teacher training and workshop at St. Marks United Church in Whitby.
