

Women's Tribune

STOUFFVILLE SCENE What's going on

A peach tree in Cedric Watson's garden, Tenth Line South, has produced an abundance of fruit this fall. One sample measured 9 inches in circumference and weighed one-half pound.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Murphy have returned to Ireland after a delightful stay with their son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Garry Murphy, Vaudor, R.R.2, Stouffville.

The Ringwood Ladies Club held their regular euchre party, Sept. 29, at the home of Ruth Paisley. Prize-winners were: Sandra Fraser, 1st; Barb Fockler, 2nd; Clara Harman, 3rd and Irene Reid, Oscar.

Mr. and Mrs. Clayton Oppertshauer of Niagara Falls were guests on Saturday of Misses Mabel and Louie Hoover, Mill Street.

Forty members of the Friendship Club enjoyed a bus trip on Thursday to see the fall colours. Their tour was through King City, Cheltenham, Bel-fountain, Erin, Orangeville and Collingwood.

Copies of the book 'Look Younger—Live Longer' by author Gayelord Hauser have been distributed at the following stores by Arthur Latham of Stouffville. They are available without charge from Shiner's Tobacco Shop, Stouffville; General Store, Whitevale; Red & White Store, Brougham; General Store, Greenwood; General Store, Balsam; French's Variety, Clarendon; Taylor's Store, Goodwood; Davies Drug Store, Uxbridge; Sandford General Store; Sweet's General Store, Zephyr; Farr's Pharmacy, Mt. Albert; Sil-oam General Store; Vandora General Store, Bethesda General Store and the Markham Economist and Sun.

Sunday show
The Roxy Theatre at Markham will be open every Sunday evening beginning Oct. 12. The first show goes in at 8 p.m.

Thankoffering meeting
The Thankoffering Meeting of St. James Presbyterian Church W.M.S. was held in the church hall Oct. 2 with the president, Mrs. Helen Dafoe in charge. She welcomed guests from the W.M.S. of St. Andrew's, Markham. A lovely solo 'I Heard the Voice of Jesus Say' was rendered by Mrs. A. D. Powell. Mrs. J. W. Armstrong led in prayer and Mrs. W. J. Boyce took the scripture reading. Rev. F. H. Cromey showed a film entitled 'Two Strangers', depicting life among the Canadian Indian.

Mrs. Charles Sexton of Windsor, was a visitor on Sunday with Mrs. Truman Baxter.

Mrs. Alfred Smith, Victoria Street, has returned from a two week visit with her son, Dr. Duncan and Mrs. Smith and family in Kentville, N.S. and a week with her daughter, Margaret, Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Walsom in Montreal.

Mrs. Mabel McMullen, formerly of Main Street East, is now residing at Town and Country Nursing Home, 382 Yonge St., North, Richmond Hill.

Sunday show
The Roxy Theatre at Markham will be open every Sunday evening beginning Oct. 12. The first show goes in at 8 p.m.

Thankoffering meeting
The Thankoffering Meeting of St. James Presbyterian Church W.M.S. was held in the church hall Oct. 2 with the president, Mrs. Helen Dafoe in charge. She welcomed guests from the W.M.S. of St. Andrew's, Markham. A lovely solo 'I Heard the Voice of Jesus Say' was rendered by Mrs. A. D. Powell. Mrs. J. W. Armstrong led in prayer and Mrs. W. J. Boyce took the scripture reading. Rev. F. H. Cromey showed a film entitled 'Two Strangers', depicting life among the Canadian Indian.

Mrs. Charles Sexton of Windsor, was a visitor on Sunday with Mrs. Truman Baxter.

Mrs. Alfred Smith, Victoria Street, has returned from a two week visit with her son, Dr. Duncan and Mrs. Smith and family in Kentville, N.S. and a week with her daughter, Margaret, Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Walsom in Montreal.

Mr. and Mrs. Allan Powell Pretty Vivian Church wedding

VIVIAN — McCormack Memorial Church at Vivian was decorated with pink roses and regal lilies for the wedding July 19, 1969 of Sharon Flewell, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Flewell, R.R. 2, Stouffville and Allan Powell, son of Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Powell, Cherrywood, Ontario.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride looked lovely in a floor-length gown of white lagoda crepe, with empire waist and long sleeves. Her chapel-length train of lagoda crepe was trimmed with chantilly lace. The sleeves and bodice were beaded with seed pearls. She carried a cascade of pink carnations.

Maid of honor, Faye Richardson of Stouffville, and bridesmaids Grace Powell of Cherrywood and Bonnie Flewell of Stouffville were dressed alike in sleeveless mauve chiffon over tafeta, floor-length gowns with mauve head pieces. They carried yellow and white carnations.

Rev. Norman Rowan assisted by Rev. V. G. Shillington performed the ceremony.

Mr. Robert Flewell, R.R. 2, Stouffville was the best man. The ushers were David Wright, Niagara-on-the-Lake and Wayne Hollinger, Cherrywood. Mrs. Earl Elson of Stouffville was the organist.

For the reception, the brides mother chose a two-piece ensemble of pale yellow antique satin with a corsage of Woburn Abbey roses. The groom's mother

Mr. and Mrs. Allan Powell, married July 19, 1969 in McCormack Memorial Church, Vivian, Ont. —R. L. Cornes wore a blue lace jacket dress with white accessories. Her corsage was of pink and white roses. For the honeymoon to Northern Ontario, the bride chose a pink crepe dress with lace bell sleeves and white accessories, and a white rose corsage. The happy couple are making their home at R.R. 2, Stouffville. Guests were present from Niagara, Oshawa, Kingston, Toronto, Oakville and Cherrywood.

Unionville Home Society Campaign for funds

UNIONVILLE — K. B. Kennedy, the President of the Board of Directors of the Unionville Home Society, has announced that Bramalea Consolidated Developments Limited has been awarded the contract to construct "Union Villa", a pleasant, functional home for the Senior Citizens of Markham Township and York County.

The Home, designed by John B. Parkin & Associates, is located on a thirteen acre site on the north side of Highway No. 7 west of Kennedy Road.

The Stouffville 4-H Club, division 2, has commenced its activities for the season. New members include Karen Grove and Karen Joyce. The new assistant leader is Mrs. Barb Joyce. The subject is 'Focus on Fitness'. Officers are Helen Foote, president; Gail Mann, vice-president; Judy Taylor, secretary, and Norma Harcourt, publicity.

Mrs. Cliff Lemon, Rupert Street, attended the party for her granddaughter, Sonya Foord, in Richmond Hill.

Cheryl Ann Bond, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Rodney Bond, celebrated her 8th birthday, Oct. 5. Rod and Judy will mark their 10th wedding anniversary, Oct. 10.

Mrs. Abe Sawatzky (the former Grace Byers) of Bowden, Alberta, is spending two weeks with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Byers, Maytree Avenue.

Mr. and Mrs. Percy Brown and Danny, Boyer Street, spent the weekend at their cottage near Minden. Visitors on the weekend included Mr. and Mrs. Ron Connor and boys and Mr. and Mrs. Ray Donn, Boyer Street; Mr. and Mrs. Peter Hoey and family, R.R.2, Clarendon and Mr. and Mrs. Gary Brown and family, Uxbridge.

Jake HARMAN & Sons
PLUMBING & Heating Ltd.
Cascade Rentals
Domestic — Industrial
Hot Water Heating
• Alterations • Repairs
• New Work • Pumps
• Softeners • Sewers
640-1576

estate administration

Our professional counsel can quickly put your affairs in good order. There is no obligation to investigate this prompt, confidential service with us.

STERLING TRUSTS
TORONTO — 372 Bay Street
BARRIE — 35 Dunlop Street
ORILLIA — 73 Mississauga Street, East
Member: Canada Deposit Insurance Corporation

Reliable TAXI
(Under New Management)
24 HOUR SERVICE
7 DAYS A WEEK
PHONE
640-2952

For Safety's Sake LET US CHECK...
Car Ride Feel Much Too Hard?
You don't have to be a member of the Rough Riders any longer. Stop in and join our smooth-ride club. New shock absorbers are part of our comfort check.
Comfort for Cars
640-4212
PAUL'S FINA CENTRE
1/2 MI. W. OF STOUFFVILLE

Mr. and Mrs. Art Endicott have returned from a holiday in England. They visited Mr. Endicott's birthplace in Devonshire which he last saw in 1927. He described the flowers as 'out of this world' and the traffic too.

Mrs. Carmen Morris who has been in the Brierbush Hospital the past four months, has returned to her home on Church Street South.

Miss Winnie Morden of Toronto spent several days with her cousin, Mrs. Truman Baxter, Rupert Street, last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Reg Button have returned from a three-week trip to Greece and the Mediterranean Islands.

Ross Edward Brown Lifetime area resident

STOUFFVILLE — A lifetime area resident and member of the Stouffville Council for over 10 years, Ross Edward Brown passed away September 30 in the Brierbush Hospital, Stouffville. He had been ill for some time.

Mr. Brown was born in 1889, on the family farm, conc. 10, Whitchurch, now the site of the Stouffville Sales Arena. The Brown family had originally purchased the property from the Crown. He was best known in the area for his wholesale vegetable business, shipping produce as far away as Florida.

The deceased was associated with the Baptist Church, a charter member of Stouffville Lions Club and Richardson Masonic Lodge. His wife, the former Gertrude Chapman, a brother, Morley, and two sisters, Mary and Cora (Mrs. Leland Johnston) predeceased him.

Surviving are a daughter, Marie (Mrs. Wesley Jack), a son, Morley, 9 grandchildren, and 4 great grandchildren.

Rev. J. L. Carder conducted a private family service from O'Neill's Funeral Home, Oct. 2. Pall Bearers were — Jack Sanders, Bill Sanders, Arthur Latcham, Bruce Harper, Harold Morden and Bob O'Donoghue.

VW-diagnosis
Standard equipment with every 1970 Volkswagen.
With every 1970 Volkswagen you get a series of regular check ups designed to keep your Volkswagen in perfect health. It's called the VW Diagnosis System. And it's not a fancy extra. It's free.
See the new VW Diagnosis and Maintenance System and drive the new 1600 1970 Beetle.
Our friendly sales staff will show and explain what you gain with the VW Diagnostic system.

MARKHAM VOLKSWAGEN
HIGHWAY 7 JUST EAST OF 48 — MARKHAM
Telephone 294-4141

OFFICIAL OPENING CEREMONIES
STOUFFVILLE DAM AND RESERVOIR
SATURDAY, OCT. 11th., 1969
AT 11 A.M.
PARKING AT HIGH SCHOOL
The Stouffville Council extends a special invitation to the public
PROGRAMME
O CANADA
Stouffville Public and Separate School Choir
INVOCATION
THE REV. J. L. CARDER
Master of Ceremonies
R. G. Henderson, Chairman,
Flood Control and Water Conservation Advisory Board
GREETINGS
C. R. Purcell, Chairman, R. D. H. P. Advisory Board
K. Laushway, Reeve, Village of Stouffville
ADDRESS
Dr. G. Ross Lord, P. Eng., Chairman
Metropolitan Toronto and Region Conservation Authority
Refreshments will be served in the cafeteria of the Stouffville District Secondary School

W-5
WHAT — Apple Drive
WHERE — Stouffville Plaza and Civic Square
WHEN — Saturday, October 11
WHY — Fund Raising Project
WHO — Stouffville District Secondary School