Drugs pose problem

MARKHAM - The problems connected with drug use and possible solutions. were subjects of a panel discussion in the Christian Education Centre of St. Andrew's United Church, Markham, Oct. 8.

The audience, that included both young people and parents taxed the accommodation of the hall. The panel, headed by

Leonard Mason, included Mrs. Virginia Northcotte, physical education instructress at Markham Dist. High School, Dr. John White, Markham Medical Centre, Police Chief Fred White. Donald Walker, pharmaceutical salesman and a Toronto social work-

Chief White, in commenting on the success of the program, said it was obvious that the seriousness of the drug issue concerned adults and teenagers alike. He said that a second meeting was planned, this time in the auditorium of the high school where more persons could be accommodated.
