

The Stouffville Figure Skating Club has acquired the services of a fourth professional Instructress. She's Anne Marie Taylor, a gold medalist. Here she talks with 5 year old Mary Catherine McDermott, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. J. McDermott, Fairview Avenue. —Jas. Thomas

Lodge marks silver anniversary

By Eleanor Todd
GOODWOOD — Goodwood L.O.B.A. held their 25th anniversary banquet, Oct. 18 at Stouffville Masonic Hall with 120 guests present. Worthy Mistress, Elva Symes introduced Sister Adelaide Spencely, the first Worthy Mistress, who gave the toast to Grand Lodge. It was responded to by Most Worshipful Sister, Blossom Stewart, Grand Director of Most Worshipful Grand Lodge of British America. A 25 year pin was presented by Right Worshipful Sister, Lottie Hamilton, Past Grand Mistress of Right Worshipful Grand Lodge of Ontario, to 8 honorary members. They are — Sisters Adelaide Spencely, Jean Baston, Viola Elson, Mary Evans, Glydes, Bradbury, Marjorie Stewart, Eva Murphy, and Irene Tindall. Sister Elizabeth Todd was unable to be present. Goodwood L.O.B.A. was first instituted on October 14, 1944 with 22 members. Adelaide Spencely was chosen as Worthy Mistress, following in the footsteps of her great uncle, Thomas Todd, who had been the first master of the men's lodge 75 years earlier. Beginning a lodge during the war years was not without its problems. Only 4 members of the usual 12 or 15 on a Degree Team were able to come to the installation because there were only enough gasoline coupons available to operate one car. The ladies started their highly successful L.O.B.A. eulches that November, and by the following July were solvent enough to be able to hire a brass band for their first Orange Walk at Orillia. Thirty ladies took part and won the prize for coming the farthest.

Next Sunday, Oct 26, will be Laity Sunday at Goodwood United Church, and Rev. Thormin will conduct a Baptismal Service, Nov. 2. He will use water which he brought home from the Jordan River on his trip to the Holy Land.

Mrs. Donald is in Uxbridge Cottage Hospital for observation. She has not been feeling well for some time.

A large number of friends and neighbors gathered at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Dickinson, Oct. 14, to say goodbye to Mr. and Mrs. Dickinson are moving to the apartment above Lehman's Shoe Store in Stouffville.

Congratulations are in order for Mr. Norman Maye who will be celebrating his eightieth birthday, Oct. 29.

Goodwood played their first hockey game in the Sunday Night League at Uxbridge Sunday and defeated Ballantrae 6-4.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Stover, Stouffville, R.R.3, have sold their home on the east townline. They plan to take up residence in Port Elgin.
