From the minister's study

By V. G. Shillington,
R.R. 3, Stouffville

"Tis the season to be jolly." I know that, but I cannot help thinking that this season is meant to promote a good, old-fashioned spirit of thanksgiving. In this Christmas issue of The Tribune, I want to omit all the social ills, the fiery trials and the hopeless defeats: I want to experience within my own soul "the therapy of thanksgiving."

First on the list of Christmas gifts for which I am thankful is my family. You may not believe it, but I am just a young impetuous Irishman who felt called to the ministry. That means that my family are also called to live the life in the manse; a life that is different, to say the least. Many times my wife could have voiced her regrets at marrying a man who is out almost every night at meetings, and then works on Sunday. My children could have turned against me when I allowed the emotion of my work to dampen my devotion to them. But they haven't. I have one of the most precious earthly possessions for which a man could wish; a loving, devoted family. I am thankful!

To my human care also, there has been entrusted a group of people known as a church. The little white building just south of Vivian Road on highway 48 is the meeting place of a community of true believers. These people have offered themselves for service in the community. They have supported me in finances, in prayer and in friendship. I am thankful for the privilege of helping them in their spiritual lives.

Among the various opportunities for public communication, none has given me more satisfaction than this weekly article in The Tribune. Mr. Jim Thomas has granted me this valuable space each week to write to you from my study. For such a worthy editor and staff I offer my sincere thanks.

Numerous other objects of thankfulness are in my mind just now, but one is supreme. It is also universal (or it should be). It is thankfulness for the Person of Christmas, Jesus Christ. Where can a person even begin to thank Him? Words won't do; I know. A single verse sums up perfectly how I feel about the whole Christmas theme. Weigh every word well, and then join me in saying, "Thank You," to Him. "This is a faithful saying, and worthy of all acceptance, that Christ Jesus came into the world to save sinners; of whom I am chief." I Tim. 1:15)

Late Robert Burnett Senior resident dies at 95

Double-ring ceremony

STOUFFVILLE — Stouffville lost a well-known, long-time resident, Dec. 17, in the passing of Robert H. Burnett at the age of 95 years.

Born near Bloomington, the son of Daniel and Mary Burnett, he farmed in the community most of his life before moving to town in 1940.

Robert Burnett

Mr. Burnett loved horses and trained many colts. He used his team to haul materials to the site of the Bloomington Christian Church where he attended until taking up residence in Stouffville. His membership was then changed to the Christian Church here and the service, Friday, was conducted by Rev. C. E. Bass from the O'Neill Funeral Home. Interment is in the Stouffville Cemetery.

Mrs. Burnett, the former Sarah Hall, passed away in 1966. A brother, Herbert and a sister, Luella (Mrs. John Dougherty) are also deceased. One sister, Clara (Mrs. Austin Wagg) lives on Main Street.

Mr. Burnett at one time owned considerable real estate in Stouffville, as many as ten homes. All have since been sold.

Family relatives and close friends attended the funeral at 2 p.m. The floral tributes were beautiful.

STOUFFVILLE — Vases of large mums and yellow and white gladioli decorated Stouffville United Church for the marriage of Miss Wendy Shaver and Mr. John Russell Weatherbee, November 1, 1969.

The double-ring ceremony was performed by Rev. James L. Carder at 4 o'clock.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Shaver, Vancouver, B.C. and the groom, the son of Mrs. Helen Weatherbee, 27 Commercial Street, Stouffville.

Mr. Ross Phelps was organist for the occasion and accompanied the soloist, Mr. Lorne Goodway. He sang 'The Lord's Prayer and O Perfect Love.'

Given in marriage by her father, the bride was lovely in a white formal length faille and lace gown with fitted bodice and train. She wore a shoulder length veil and carried miniature white carnations and an orchid.

Attending the bride were Theresa Whalen of Pickering as maid of honor and bridesmaids Carol Fretz and Susan Shaver of Clarendon and Susan Hall, West Hill. They were attractive in formal length empire style gowns. The brides were deep burgundy velvet trimmed with mauve lace and the skirt of mauve peau-de-soie. They carried miniature white and yellow carnations.

Mr. Wilfred Bradley, R.R.3, Clarendon, was the best man. The ushers were John Heaton, Larry Watters and Wayne Peterson. They were formally dressed. The bride's mother wore a burgundy chiffon street length dress with matching accessories and a corsage of white roses. The mother of the groom chose a street length brown velvet dress with beige accessories and a corsage of yellow roses.

Mr. and Mrs. John Weatherbee, married Nov. 1, 1969 in the Stouffville United Church. —Markham Photo Centre

The happy couple are now residing at 10 St. Dennis Drive, Don Mills. The draw for a new 1970 snowmobile will be held Dec. 26 (Boxing Day) when the Stouffville Clippers host Napanee here at two o'clock.
