Dagmar's winter sportsland

The Dagmar Ski Resort in Uxbridge Township has become a winter sportsland for ski enthusiasts, including many from the Stouffville area. Shown here is instructor David Hunt of Markham doing a 'spread eagle' off a jump on the clubhouse run. The resort owner and club president is Gabor Marton, R.R.1 Ashburn. —Peter Harris.

Keith Acton

Nets 4 in romp over Bay Ridges

STOUFFVILLE—It was Keith Acton, Keith Acton, Keith Acton and Keith Acton on the scoresheet as he led the Stouffville Peewee All-Stars to a 9-3 romp over Bay Ridges. Acton needed little warm up as he scored early. One tally came at the fifteen second mark of the middle stanza and the other two were recorded within the first minutes of the last period. Once again the local boys played a well-balanced, fundamentally sound game as they worked together to post this decisive win. Doug Feasby, Craig Waite, Howie Jones and Ted Assinck turned in good performances for the IGA's.

The grocery boys jumped into a 3-1 lead after some sparkling first period play. Ted Assinck started it off from Howie Jones. Bay Ridges struck back when Chris Pupotheadova found the mark. Acton got his first counter from Craig Waite and then Ass-inck set the pattern allowing Feasby to blink the bulb for the winners.

Stouffville widened the gap with two unanswered second period tallies. Acton's unassisted effort was followed by Malcolm Johnston's goal. Waite picked up his second assist on that one.

Leading 5-1, it would have been understandable if Stouffville cooled off in the final twenty minutes. Not so with the plucky IGA's. Another red light

Juveniles re-gain winning ways

STOUFFVILLE—Stouffville's 'Kin' Juveniles have regained their winning ways after their victory string was snapped by Markham.

On Dec. 17, they returned with a vengeance to shut out Pickering 9-0. Lynn Forsyth, working between the pipes, was 'Mr. Zero', completing some excellent stops. He received good protection from his defence and back-checking forwards.

Brian Kessel fired two tallies for the homesters. Bill Thornhill netted one and drew assists on 3 others. Single markers also came from the sticks of Larry Gilroy, Dave Farlow, Jody Holden, Jim Lamoreaux, Gord Henderson and Bob Leger. Russ Stover, Wendell Harrison, Holden and Farlow picked up a point apiece in the assist department.

Stouffville travels to Uxbridge on Friday for a nine o'clock contest. Port Perry comes here Jan. 4 at 9:30 p.m. Stouffville moves over to the Scugog town Jan. 7.

Rolls 729 triple

STOUFFVILLE—Shirley Wright led the 7 p.m. ladies' bowling league, Dec. 18, with a 729 triple and three games of 244, 210 and 275.

Others who topped the 200 mark were—Audrey Paton, 218; Pat Ford, 217; Diane Graves, 216; Betty Allen, 215; Barb Melhuish, 212; Minnie Peach, 201.

Winners of the first series are the Hi-Lo's with 72 points.

Winners of the turkey round were—Shirley Wright, Diane Graves and Audrey Paton. Bowling in the second series begins Jan. 8.

at thirty-three seconds and an encore, at fifty-two seconds by Acton. Feasby helped on the initial counter. Bay Ridges refused to roll over as they got a pair. This aroused the Stouffville contingent and Blair Bangay put them back on the rails with assistance from Mike Berry. Waite ended the scoring from Feasby and Acton.

Netminder injured

STOUFFVILLE—Harold Crowder, Stouffville Juveniles' number 1 netminder is watching current games from the sidelines. He suffered a broken hand recently and will be out of action for at least a month. Also on the shelf is star rearguard Brian Norton. He is ailing with a dislocated shoulder but is expected back early in the new year. Neither player was hurt during hockey action.

Coach Jake Harman has pressed goal-guardian Lynn Forsyth into full-time service. Against Pickering, Dec. 17, he looked impressive, blanking the visitors 9-0.

The Juveniles are sponsored by the Stouffville Kinsmen Club. The lineup includes—Goal, Harold Crowder, Lynn Forsyth; defence, Donald Harman, Larry Gilroy, Wendell Harrison, Dave McNelly, Russ Stover, Brian Norton, Jim Lamoreaux; forwards, Jody Holden, Brian Kessel, Gord Henderson, Bill Thornhill, Rene Plante, Randy Lee, Bob Leger and Dave Farlow.

Thursday ladies' league

STOUFFVILLE—Jean Dart rolled a 286 and a 236 in the Dec. 11 schedule of the Thursday Afternoon Ladies' Bowling League. Others over 200 were: Toots Taylor, 235-216; Sandra Fraser, 227-222; Bernice Nelson, 221; June Ward, 211-210-206; Joanne Steel, 210-202; Lois Bartley, 204; Anna Fretz, 203.

On Dec. 4, the top scorers were: Toots Taylor, 231; Edna Lee, 227; Irene White, 213; Jean Dart, 211; Mildred Ash, 210; Lil Baker, 207; Ev McKay, 203; Joan Boyd, 202; Gladys Bunker, 201; Lois Bartley, 200.

Minor Hockey League

Record registration

STOUFFVILLE—The Stouffville Minor Hockey Association has reached a new high in player registration. At present there are 385 boys registered in the Leagues from Mite through to Midget. This is approximately 50 additional players over last year's total.

A second Midget club has been formed and it plays its home games on Monday nights at 9 o'clock. The League comprises teams from such places as Port Perry, Ajax, Port Hope and Markham. The team is sponsored by Neil Patrick Motors.

Houston Drugs OMHA Bantams will be participating in a tournament in Markham on December 28th. The Beckers Milk OMHA Midgets will travel to Oshawa on January 3rd for a Midget tournament. Details as to the game times for these tournaments may be obtained from the players or coaches.

As Christmas and New Years fall on Thursdays this year, special arrangements have been made for teams who normally play on Wednesday or Thursday evenings. If your child does play at these times please check with the team coach as to when the regularly scheduled games will be played.

Members of the Stouffville Minor Hockey Association extend to all their players and families the best wishes of the season.

Bantam all-stars

Edge Unionville 3-2

STOUFFVILLE—Stouffville's Bantam All-Stars squeaked by Unionville 3-2 in an exhibition game played last Thursday night.

The local club was faced with a fifteen day lay off between scheduled league games. Rather than let idleness, turkey and holiday distractions dull their edge, coach Bob Parish arranged several exhibition encounters.

In the Unionville affair, Stouffville's win didn't come all that easily. The losers were getting into high gear and came close to forcing a deadlock in the final period.

Houston's carried the play, stuck to their positions and had sufficient desire to earn a 2-0 lead in the first frame. Kevin Barrick completed a play originated by Mike Sprague before Wayne Carter set up Kim Steckley to increase the margin.

The tempo in the middle stanza slowed slightly but Steve Pope was able to finish off a pattern structured by John Meakes. Unionville failed to reply and Houston's led 3-0.

The absence of the Norton boys was obvious but Finley Macdonald made some excellent rushes also Wayne Norton and his hard, accurate shot from the point kept the visitors alert.

In the final twenty minutes Don Dalker staggered Stouffville with two goals which triggered enough spirit to push Unionville to a tie but Stouffville was able to hold on during the final four minutes despite the concentrated attack. Dalker's first tally came with the help of Jim Jack at 8:47 and his second at 15:45 was engineered by Jim Jones.

Unionville had the most shots on goal with twenty-three to twenty-one. In a recent game with West Rouge, Houston's hockeyists won 5-3 to give them a 5 win - 1 tie - 3 losses record. Only eight games remain in the official league schedule.

A 1-1 tie with Oak Ridges last Sunday suggests a good game when these two teams meet in the Park Street arena on Boxing Day at 9:00 a.m!

Robbie Bryant

Peewee team hero

STOUFFVILLE—Hetherington Electricians took a close 3-2 decision from D & A Construction in a defensive Peewee game, Dec. 17, that featured plenty of solid forechecking. Robbie Bryant was the hero for the electricians as he notched the first goal and the eventual winner. Ken Hill picked up the other goal while Joe Thistle and Danny Brazier earned assists. For D & A Ted Wood scored both goals, assisted each time by Blair Emerson. Brian Forfar played a good defensive game for Hetheringtons.

picked up 2 assists for a good night's work. Other scorers were Mickey Thorn, Bruce Thornhill and Bill Carruthers.
