

Late Hugh Crawford

Stricken suddenly by coronary

By Betty Pegg
GREENWOOD — Our community has been saddened once again with the sudden passing of Mr. Hugh Crawford, a resident on Westney Road North. Mr. Crawford had been operating a snowblower in his laneway and was stricken a short time later with a coronary. Death was almost instantaneous. Following cremation in Toronto, a memorial service was conducted in Greenwood United Church, Sunday. Surviving is his wife, Janet, a son, Hugh of Oshawa and a daughter, Susan, attending Toronto Teacher's College. Sympathy is extended to the family.

Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Pegg and Ruth entertained the choir to a Christmas party following practice, Thursday evening.

Miss Beatrice McLean led the worship and program for the general meeting of the U.C.W., Dec. 16. New officers for 1970 will be published when all positions have been filled.

Mr. and Mrs. Milton Pegg visited with Mrs. Gormley of Leaskdale and Mrs. Birrell of Port Perry recently.

On Dec. 18, the Grade 4 children of Valleyview School and their teacher, Mrs. Finch, presented the Nativity Scene and a program of Christmas carols for the other pupils. Gifts were exchanged on Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. A. Robertson entertained at a skating party on the occasion of their grandson Danny's birthday.

Congratulations to Cathy Byberg who celebrated her birthday, Dec. 18.

Mr. and Mrs. Grant Pascoe motored to Smith Falls, Wednesday and delivered Christmas gifts from the U.C.W. to the retarded children there.

CEDAR GROVE — It looks like a Merry one in Cedar Grove as the big day approaches. Cedar Grove lights are on and you can hear the music drifting all the way to Box Grove. Skating should be good over the holidays.

David Whittamore had a rush trip to the hospital Sunday and underwent an emergency appendix operation. He will be home for Christmas.

Vera Taylor will be spending Christmas at York County Hospital, Newmarket, following surgery.

There are a few reminders: Pot Luck Supper in the schoolhouse Dec. 29. It will be a party night with, hopefully, some of Chris Chapman's films following supper. That's at 6.30.

Euchre players, remember the first Euchre of the new year is in the schoolhouse, Jan. 5.

Provincial assessment office

ONTARIO CITY — Public Works Minister, J. R. Simonett, Dr. Matthey Dymond, MPP for Ontario and William Newman, MPP for Ontario South, made a joint announcement Dec. 9, that the Assessment Office for the County of Ontario Court House and Administration Building, 605 Rossland Road East, Whitby. The Assessment Office will occupy the Whitby premises the first week of January to facilitate the administration of real property assessment for municipalities in accordance with the transfer of this responsibility to the Ontario Government, effective January 1, 1970.
