Those who attended are probably still chuckling over the enthusiastic songs of the Kindergarten children in their green crepe paper costumes -

"Oh, Christmas Tree" brought down the house; and the last verse of "Jesus Loves Me" was new and different. There were the 'short' and 'long' version of The Night Before Christmas presented by Primary Class 1 and Junior Class 2; a Happy Holiday drill by the Primary Class 2; Santa Claus and the Mouse by Junior Class 1, and the Christmas Story by Intermediate Class; and a skit, The Doll and the Drum by the Senior group.

There was Chris Hood singing "Where is Love" from "Oliver"; and David Webster reciting "Jest 'Fore Christmas; and Julie McConnell playing a piano solo. And there were Mrs. Don Reesor and Mrs. Clayton Jones and Debbie Stewart and Miss Sharon Buchanan providing accompaniments and leadership; and there were teachers and assistants piloting the children through the evening and there was the Rev. Chris keeping a careful watch and chairing proceedings.

The Sunday School staff includes the Superintendent, Bruce Armstrong; Sr. Class teacher Harvey Brown; Intermediate class, Wes Lammers; Mr. Garnet Stewart and Miss Debbie Stewart, Junior Class (2) team teachers; Mrs. Bob Hood, Jr. Class (1); Miss Carolyn Copp, and Mrs. Eleanor Webster, Primary (2) team teachers with Debbie Hood assisting; and Kindergartens Mrs. Parton and Mrs. Newman.

STOUFFVILLE -Councillors Jim McKellar and Tom Lonergan misplaced their prepared list of accounts, Thursday.

To speed up proceedings, Reeve Ken Laushway handed them his copy - only for the month of July instead of December.

The two checked out each expenditure carefully until almost the very end. Then councillor McKellar sensed something was wrong. A purchase for the swimming pool gave it all away.
