

Dog owners win top awards

ATHA — Several dog owners in the Atha area are taking home ribbons from shows across the province.

At a show held recently in the York Farmers Market in Thornhill, Sandra and Bill Almond did well with their English Springer Spaniels. Sandra scored 186 in the Obedience trials with "Johnny" and Bill showed two in the conformation classes, taking second in the puppy class with "Jake". The Almonds' "Nancy" won best female and best of breed.

Cindy Baird's Alaskan Malamute "Crunch" won best of breed and took a fourth in group.

Mr. Don Davis judged the Working Group while his wife, Alice, was at another show in Ottawa where their homebred Champion Almonds' Colossus won best of breed.

Scott Powell's Labrador Retriever puppy "Toaster" took third in the puppy class.

Mrs. Tom Philip of Roshan Kennels judged obedience in the morning and showed her Labrador Retriever puppy "Mo" in the afternoon, winning best of breed and taking second in the Sporting Group.

The Atha community of Pickering Twp. is gaining canine prominence in show competitions. A prize-winner here is 'Mo', a Labrador Retriever owned by Mrs. Tom Philip, Claremont, R.R. 2. —Peter Harris
