

Mr. and Mrs. Robt. Britnell

Mark fortieth anniversary

By Evelyn Milsted GORMLEY — Over seventy guests called on Mr. and Mrs. Robert Britnell on the occasion of their fortieth wedding anniversary. Their son-in-law and daughter, Florence; Mr. and Mrs. Harry Empringham, and their son Victor and his wife of Barrie were present. Granddaughters Shirley and Linda Empringham graciously served the guests. Mrs. R. N. Bell poured tea, assisted by Mrs. Britnell's sister, Mrs. Claudia Wilfred and Mrs. Gertrude Keenan, both of Toronto, helping in the kitchen.

Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Brown and Scott of Tottenham spent a few days with her brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Wilson.

Mr. and Mrs. Eric Pikey of Markham were dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Farmer, Saturday in honor of Coleen's birthday.

Sunday dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Farmer were Mr. and Mrs. Warren Reaman, Thornhill, Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Bowen and family of Little Britain, Mr. Allan Smith, and Mr. Roy Heise. Mr. and Mrs. Peter Heath and family of England, living with Mr. and Mrs. Eric Marliag for several weeks have moved to Maple.

A number of Gormley people attended the funeral of Mr. Walter Gray at the Missionary Church in Stouffville, Saturday. Mr. Gray delivered bread for a number of years in the Gormley community.

Blanche, Freda and Ruth Henderson entertained the young people from Oak Ridges Brethren in Christ Church on Saturday, in honor of newlyweds, Mr. and Mrs. Eric Saunders. The happy couple were presented with a beautiful hassock.

Mr. Ronald Holmes is ill with mumps. Rev. Wilbur Benner is the guest speaker Sunday evening at Heise Hill Church. The Bridlewood Male Quartette will provide special music.

Rev. and Mrs. Elwood Flewelling, of Hummels town, Pennsylvania were pleasantly surprised by a presentation, Monday night at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Russell Heise in honor of their recent marriage.

Friends and neighbors extended their best wishes to Mr. Pat Johnstone and his bride-to-be, Miss Aulikki Kukkonen when they were guests of honor at a miscellaneous shower on Saturday night at the home of Pat's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Monty Johnstone.

Lake accident

By Jane Schweichert MUSSELMAN'S LAKE — The Ninth Line, that skirts the east side of Musselman's Lake, has been widened. The latest accident victim, however, is Miss Ruth Trenholm. Her car was in collision with a truck. Ruth escaped with minor injuries but her vehicle was badly damaged.

Best wishes to Jannette Cooper, Coultice Drive, who celebrated her fifth birthday, Jan. 25. Youngsters present at the party were: Debbie and Janet Hutson, Lynn Stacy, Paul and Barry Jackson, Debbie Cooper, Kim Madill and Vicki and Mark Patton. Little Jannette is a kindergarten pupil in Mrs. Hoover's class at Ballantyne School.

A speedy recovery is wished for Mrs. James Grey, Valley Road, suffering from pneumonia.

Mrs. Annie Watt, Churchill Drive, is still suffering from the effects of a fall at Markham Fair.

Toronto Pediatrician needs a weekend retreat — Something hilly, and scenic — hopefully with a stream. The house can be humble. It's peace and quiet this family wants (and will pay cash for). The doctor will be available to see properties on the weekend of Feb. 7.
