STOUFFVILLE SCENE

What's going on

Arthritis sufferers and those interested in helping them, will have an opportunity this month, to learn what modern medical science can do to alleviate the symptoms of this painful and often crippling disease. On Feb. 25, at 8 p.m., the York Central Branch, Canadian Arthritis and Rheumatism Society will conduct a public forum in the Richmond Hill High School gymnasium. It will be attended by a panel of professionals to discuss various aspects of the rheumatic diseases and answer questions from the audience.

Mr. Joseph Murray, who suffered a stroke while visiting his daughter and her family in Calgary, has been transferred from Holy Cross to Calgary General Hospital. The General Hospital is better equipped to handle the therapy required in such cases. He is on the 7th floor.

The request by the York-Oshawa District Health for the return of D.D.T. contents and containers, met with very good response in town, according to Clerk Ralph Corner. The collection was made last month throughout the County.

Mr. and Mrs. Cliff Lemon, Rupert Avenue, were dinner guests with her sister, Mrs. Mildred Webster, Richmond Hill, on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. William Keith Powell, married Jan. 16, 1970. The pretty bride, the former Sandra Diane Mullin, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Mervyn Mullin, Rexdale. The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Powell, R.R. 1, Unionville.

Bermuda honeymoon

UNIONVILLE — On Friday, January 16, 1970, at 7 o'clock, Rev. Fred Vaughan officiated at the marriage of Sandra Dianne, youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Mervyn Mullin of Rexdale to William Keith, son of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Powell of Unionville. Mrs. Fred Vaughan presided at the organ.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride looked lovely in a floor-length gown of sheer nylon over taffeta, with long sleeves and a ruffled bodice. Her shoulder-length veil fell from a headpiece of pearls and rhinestones. She carried a bouquet of red sweetheart roses with white carnations and stephanotis.

Mrs. Geraldine Benson was matron of honor for her sister. She wore a lilac silk velvet dress with long georgette sleeves and carried a bouquet of yellow daisies and stephanotis. Mr. Gordon Powell, brother of the groom, was best man. Following a reception held at the Aloha Inn for the immediate family the bride's mother received the guests in a purple crimpolene dress and white accessories. She wore a mauve orchid corsage. She was assisted by the groom's mother who chose a gold crimpolene dress with black accessories and a white orchid corsage. For their honeymoon trip to Bermuda, the bride chose a pink and mauve wool dress. The happy couple are now residing at Downsview.

Mr. Glenn Ratcliff, Stouffville, left by air on Tuesday for an extensive tour of Africa. Mr. Ratcliff will stop in Rome and Athens enroute and return from Africa via South America in a couple of months.

Mr. John Jones, Albert Street, North, is recuperating in Scarborough Centenary Hospital following surgery.

Mr. and Mrs. John Randolph of Guelph visited with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Brubacher, Albert Street South.

Friends will be pleased to learn that Miss Ida Lehman who was hospitalized following a household accident in which she was severely burned, is progressing satisfactorily.

Mr. John Roberts, M.P., York Simcoe, addressed the junior and senior students at Stouffville Dist. Secondary School, Monday, in two separate assemblies. Later he visited several rooms to view the progress of class activities.

The Couples' Club of St. James' Presbyterian Church enjoyed a snowmobile and toboggan party at the farm residence of Mr. and Mrs. Klaas Wassenaar, near Siloam, Friday evening. The two snow machines were provided by Hal and Helen Dafoe, Main Street.
