Bantams out

'Gave their best' — coach

STOUFFVILLE — "We're proud of them. They worked their hearts out and you can't ask for more than that." Coach, Bob Parish and Manager, Gord Tarr were reflecting upon the 3-1 loss which eliminated the Stouffville Bantam All-Stars from further OMHA playoffs.

The Houston's were beaten by a bigger and better Alliston team who now advance to the third round. Often the breaks went the other way but the Stouffville squad refused to use that as an excuse. They simply did their best and it wasn't enough.

Jackie Holder in the losers' mesh turned in an exciting and inspired exhibition and the boys in front of him gave their all. Wayne Norton kindled the fire of hope when he made it 2-1 but the tying goal couldn't be bought.

In the first game it was a 4-2 defeat for Stouffville. They led 2-1 going into the last period but a concentrated attack by Alliston and a lapse by the losers soon made it 4-2. Steve Pope and Kim Steckley found the mark for the locals while Rob Owens lit the lamp twice for Alliston. Doug Anderson and Larry Halbert got the other two.

It may be of little consolation to those who see winning as the only purpose, but the referee paid a tribute to both teams when he was heard to say that he had never officiated in a cleaner series.

Hockey isn't over for Houston's. Several exhibition games have been scheduled including one with Oak Ridges tonight at 7:45 p.m. The annual Port Perry tournament will be played on Feb. 28 and Stouffville will be one of the participants.

'Clippers' make playoffs

STOUFFVILLE — It was a wild sea but the 'Clipper' ship managed to weather the storm and find a comfortable berth in third or fourth place. Why the doubt? Their 6-2 victory over Picton created a three-way tie with the losers and Wellington. Having the better win-loss record over each of the other two clubs, Stouffville should claim third position in the Intermediate "B" standings.

At press time, the playoff schedule had not been determined but Coach, Bob Hassard's opinion was that Whitby would likely provide the opposition on Feb. 24 at 8:30 p.m.

This decision was to be made at an OHA meeting last Wednesday evening. In addition, the results of a Stouffville protest that Whitby has used ineligible players should be handed down. Should the protest be granted, the Whitby squad could be minus the players alleged to be living beyond the team's geographical boundaries. An earlier grievance by Wellington against Napanee for the same infraction earned them four points and almost caused the 'Clippers' to miss a playoff position.
