Teacher salary negotiations

Another solution needed - trustee

Honor parents on anniversary

STOUFFVILLE — Up to March 5, the salary negotiating committee of York County Board of Education has held a total of 18 meetings, trustee Arthur Starr told Stouffville Council, Thursday. Mr. Starr, a member for Stouffville-Whitchurch, is the appointed chairman. To date, he said, the committee had met ten times with secondary school teachers and on eight occasions with spokesmen for the elementary school staffs. He explained that a new school is not always required in every new subdivision. Councillor Tom Lonergan wanted to know if the Board had considered a policy whereby the developer would build the school and then lease it. Mr. Starr replied that such a plan was under consideration but nothing as yet had been finalized.

BLOOMINGTON — Mr. and Mrs. Ted Barry and family entertained at a dinner party for her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Smalley of Sandford on the occasion of their 44th wedding anniversary. Other guests were - Mr. and Mrs. Irwin Kydd and Mr. and Mrs. Walter Carruthers, Sandford and Mr. and Mrs. Tom Dawson, Goodwood. Sunday visitors with Mr. and Mrs. Barry were Mr. and Mrs. Byron Lockie and family, Belhaven.

BLOOMINGTON — Mrs. Ruth Courtney is a patient in Wellesley Hospital. Mr. and Mrs. Norman Gress, Brantford, were week-end guests with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Lew Irvine.

STOUFFVILLE — Mrs. Mae Wild and Mrs. Everton Smith of Stouffville spent Sunday at Port Perry, visiting their sister and her husband, Mr. and Mrs. James McDonald.
