

Old-fashioned hymn sing features unique family gathering

It was just like old times as nine members in the family of the late Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Steckley gathered together at the residence of a sister, Elsie (Mrs. Roy Wideman), 19th Avenue, Markham Twp. And what could be more appropriate than an old-fashioned hymn sing in the living room of the Wideman farm home. Pictured here (left to right) are - Walter Steckley, Barrie; Levi Steckley, Gormley; Mrs. Roy Brillinger (Ida), Gormley; Mrs. George Sheffer (Luella), Stayner; Mrs. Peter Stickley (Clara), Almira; Mrs. Abram Lehman (Annie), Carlisle, Pennsylvania; Mrs. Roy Wideman (Elsie), Unionville, R.R.1; Mrs. Alvin Winger (Louisa), Gormley and Clarence Steckley, also of Gormley. One brother, Elmer, is deceased. —Jas. Thomas.

GOODWOOD — After losing the first two ORHA hockey games in their series with Sunderland, it was Goodwood's turn to win last Saturday night — so they did. The many fans who travelled to Sunderland Arena to watch what could have been the final game of the season, were well-rewarded. It was like the first game in reverse. Our boys swarmed all over the Sunderland team and at the end of the second period the score was 7-2. But during the third period Goodwood, showing the effects of their all-out effort, played a more defensive game and Sunderland pushed in three more goals.

The team gathered at the home of Gail and Wayne Redshaw after the game to enjoy their victory and give the new house a proper housewarming. Dave Jackson was named president of the Goodwood Minor Softball Association at their meeting last Sunday. Plans for a township league have been abandoned and it is expected that one team in each of the age groups will be formed and entered in the Portly Perry league as before.

Did you wonder why there were so many cars parked on Front Street last Sunday evening? Well, it was Ken Jefferson's birthday and his sister June invited a number of friends and relatives in to help him celebrate. The annual cancer campaign gets underway this week and will continue until the end of April. Mrs. Bonnie Yakeley is the campaign chairman for Uxbridge Township and her captains are Mrs. Beverley Northeast (in Goodwood), Mrs. Rowena Tindall, Mrs. Molly Butlers, Mrs. Evelyn Michell, Mrs. Clara Jones, Mrs. Isobel St. John, Mrs. Wm. Seabrook, Mrs. Barbara Lyons, Mrs. Lucille Weldon, and Mrs. Eleanor Harrison. The April meeting of the Women's Institute will be held in the United Church basement this Monday evening. The theme is Citizenship and Mrs. Irene Tindall is in charge. Betty Sanders of Stouffville will be showing a film on life in Moosonee. This month's motto is — a lot of good could be done in the world if no one cared who got credit for it. The roll call is — a characteristic of a good citizen. All officers are expected to have their reports ready to hand in at this meeting.

Kim Tindall, David Tracy, and Jill, Jackie, and Julie St. John are performing in Stouffville's skating carnival this weekend. Joe and Nancy Yakeley, who are becoming very skilful pairs skaters, will be performing as a matador and his senorita. If you'd like to do something different for a change, drop in at the school tonight at 7:30. The students and teachers have prepared a show called An April Shower of Stars. The music festival choirs and soloists will be singing and we have been promised some gymnastic displays.
