STOUFFVILLE SCENE

What's going on

Noon buffet
Assist the Grade 6 pupils of Summitview School by attending the Noon Buffet in the United Church, Wednesday, April 29 from 11 a.m. until 2 p.m. Proceeds will be used to take the children on a trip to Ottawa in June.

Mr. Wilfred Morley, a member of Stouffville's new recreation commission, was the guest speaker at a meeting of the Lions Club, Monday night.

Barb Fockler was the hostess at her home, April 6, for a gathering of the Ringwood Ladies' Club. Euchre prize winners were Dorothy Mehaffey (oscar); Ev. McKay and Edna Lee.

Mr. Jim Gould, accountant at the Stouffville Branch, Canadian Imperial Bank of Commerce, is the new manager at Clarendon. Mr. Harold McConkey has assumed the manager's post at Englehart.

Mrs. Cecil Latham, well-known in the Stouffville area, is a patient in Scarborough General Hospital following surgery.

Duncan Giles of Giles Chev-Olds Limited, has completed the sale of the firm's first Corvette, a red fibre-glass beauty costing in excess of $7,000. The owner is Ernest Gribble of Edward Street.

Daffodil Tea
Mrs. Ross Giles, 68 William Street, will host the annual spring Daffodil Tea, Thursday (today) from 2:30 to 5 p.m. The gathering is sponsored by the Stouffville Branch of the Canadian Cancer Society.

Mr. Les Wilson, Lloyd Avenue is the winner of the Lions Club's final hockey pool draw of the season. A cheque for $500 was presented to him, Monday, by committee chairman, Jack McDermott, Fairview Avenue.

Stouffville firemen were called to the residence of Paul Otter, Hwy 48 Saturday night, when a blaze broke out in an upstairs attic. Damage has been estimated at $1,000.

Graduate

On Saturday, May 2, Peter R. Gibbins will receive his Bachelor of Religious Education Degree from the Ontario Bible College at a ceremony in Varsity Arena, Toronto. The 92 graduates represent 37 denominations. Peter is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Reg. Gibbins, Loretta Crescent South, Stouffville.

On the occasion of his 75th birthday, Mr. Arthur Latham, Rupert Avenue, was honored at a family gathering, April 8.

Mrs. Isobel Hampton of Toronto spent Sunday with Miss Margery Mertens, Duchess Street. Mrs. Robert Brown of Uxbridge was also a recent visitor.

Mrs. Jack Davis of Toronto is visiting her daughter and son-in-law Dr. Ron and Mrs. Smith and family, Fairview Avenue.

Visitors with Mr. and Mrs. Russell Smith, Main Street West, over the weekend were her parents Mr. and Mrs. Irvin Geiger of Kitchener.

Mrs. Richard Novak and Krista of Lombard, Ill., are spending some time with her father, Mr. William Morris, Park Drive.

Several friends enjoyed dinner, Thursday, at the home of Mrs. Ken Campbell, Ringwood. The occasion was a birthday gathering in honor of Mrs. Walter Atkinson, Park Drive.

Accordion concert
Beverly Bell, Clarendon, R.R.3, a student of Stouffville Dist. Secondary School, will provide the vocal color at an all-accordion concert in the Aurora Community Centre, May 2 at 8 p.m. Beverly has enjoyed much success, both as an accordionist and a singer. The performance is under the direction of Mr. John Giovanelli. The public is invited. For tickets, call 640-1657.

Mr. and Mrs. David Sloss of Newmarket have moved into the former Lorne Gillion home on Rupert Avenue.

Mrs. John Lehman, Mill Street spent a few days with Mrs. I.H. Erb in Preston.

A large crowd attended the Missionary Banquet of the Stouffville Missionary Church, Monday night at the Youth Centre. Rev. John Kao along with his wife and two sons of Hong Kong provided a very interesting program.

Horticultural Meeting
The 46th anniversary of the Horticultural Society will be held in St. James Presbyterian Church, Monday April 20 at 8 p.m. Music will be supplied by Mrs. Alma Oldham and the Guest Speaker will be Mr. Fred Hayes of Burlington.

A new illuminated sign has been erected on the property of the Stouffville Monument Works, Main Street West.

A cat, believed stolen from a property on William Street, has been returned. A motorist phoned The Tribune to say that he found that cat near the road and thought it only to be a stray. He took it home. On reading an item in the paper, he immediately contacted Stouffville police.

The lovely children's portrait in the window of Cadieux Studio, Main Street East, are the daughters of Mr. and Mrs. John Little, formerly of Markham, R.R.2 and now living near Peterboro. The girls are — Tania Lynn, 3 and Tara Lee, 1½. The photo has been admired by many.
