

Cookie sales

To support foster child

By Eleanor Todd
GOODWOOD - The United Church Sunday School children who decided to support a foster child have been enthusiastically selling homemade cookies this week to raise money for their project. Next week several mothers will be working overtime baking thousands of cookies to help fill the orders.

The Goodwood Snowflayers will be out in full force this Saturday night dancing at Club Annrene, not snowmobiling. Trophies will be presented to the high scorers in last winter's races at an After The Dance Buffet.

On Saturday, several couples travelled to Club Annrene to help Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Taylor and Mr. and Mrs. Murray Taylor celebrate their wedding anniversaries. They must have been 31 pretty good years for Bruce and Dorothy. Bruce insists that it was only their 15th.

The Goodwood Minor Ball Association will meet in the township hall this Sunday, April 26. No need to fret, hockey fans - the meeting will take place at 10 a.m. The sympathy of the community is extended to Mrs. Greta Dowsell and Mrs. Mae Wilson on the death of Mr. Bill Jones, April 14 at Uxbridge Cottage Hospital in his 81st year. Bill was Mrs. Dowsell's brother and Mrs. Wilson's son-in-law. He was a native of Goodwood and a World War I veteran - a member of Col. Sam Sharp's 116th Regiment which marched from the training camp at Lindsay to the railway station at Oshawa on their way overseas. Bill suffered the rest of his life from the effects of that march.

Mrs. Ellen Mackintosh entered North York Branson Hospital last Sunday for abdominal surgery. She hopes to be home again next week.

Several people from this area travelled to Woodville to attend the sale on the Geo. Baldwin property. Mr. Carl Hudson is visiting Cherry Hill, New Jersey and Philadelphia, Pa., this week to study the operation of corrugators in connection with his work at CIP Containers.

Mr. and Mrs. Percy Meredith of Massey, Ont., were Sunday guests of Bill and Edna McQuaker and family, and Miss Doreen Mitchell entertained her friends, Miss Gail Pearson and Miss Matilda Docherty of Toronto at her parents' home last weekend. Les and Mary Mitchell visited Mary's mother, Mrs. Joe Cooper, at York Manor Sunday and found her much improved.

April is birthday month at the Noble home. Polly and her daughter Linda celebrated theirs together on the 18th, Steve's was the day before, Ron's was on the 11th, and Donnie's was yesterday.

Marc Bennett Young celebrated his sixth birthday on Monday with a party after school for his friends.

Waste site - no bed of roses

By Norma Tranmer
BLOOMINGTON - Residents of the Bloomington community are urged to attend the P.O.W. (Preserve Our Water) meeting, Tuesday evening in the Stouffville Dist. Secondary School. Our wells are close to this possible source of pollution so we have every right to be concerned. There have been conflicting reports concerning this problem. While residents here do not profess to be experts on such matters, we can assure officials that when the wind is in the northwest, the waste site is certainly no rose farm. Join your neighbors, Tuesday and voice your opinion. Mrs. Bessie and Miss Isobel Barrow, Hamilton enjoyed supper, Saturday, with their aunt Mr. and Mrs. Art Story. The sympathy of the community is extended to the family of the late Mrs. Rose Tyson. The Pilgrims, junior branch of the Pioneer Girls, sang at C.A.G. Church, Sunday morning. Mr. and Mrs. Michael McGarry, Bolton, were Sunday visitors with his parents and grandmother, Mr. and Mrs. James McGarry and Mrs. Dorothy Berringer. Sunday guests with Mr. and Mrs. Ted Barry and family were her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Smalley, Sandford, Mr. and Mrs. Barry were Saturday supper guests of Mr. and Mrs. Dave Sleep and daughter.

Mr. and Mrs. John Kee and Penny, accompanied by Mrs. Howard Kee, Caledon East were recent visitors with Mr. and Mrs. Otto Tranmer.

Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Lemon, Jonathan and Carol Bowlby spent Sunday with Mrs. Ruth Reichard, Weston. Jonathan is home after completing his 2nd year at Guelph University.
