A new image

MARKHAM — "It's not a den of iniquity and it shouldn't be treated as such," Reeve, Albert Laidlaw was defending the new image of the pool room as Markham Town Council amended regulations pertaining to this business.

Under the new by-law, the previous age restriction has been eliminated. Prior to this legislation, a person must have reached an age of 18 years before entering a billiards hall.

It was felt that operators of bowling allies, especially those with pool facilities, had exercised an unfair commercial advantage over those who operated only pool halls. Although considerable discussion centred around
