Four children baptized

By Isobel Nigh
MELVILLE — It was Family Life Sunday at Melville United Church, May 10, appropriate for the receiving of four children in infant baptism. They were — Barbara Suzanne, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Larry Skelton; Pamela Anne, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harold McKay; Ronald Clayton, son of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Lewis and Kenneth Glenn, son of Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Brown. Rev. Davison delivered a most timely sermon related to the responsibility of parents to their children.
 Timmy Houck is staying with his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Houck. He has a new sister Kimberley Anne.
 Mr. and Mrs. Russell Hunt attended Wesley Church, Sunday, where their granddaughter, Susan, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Hunt, was baptized.
 Mrs. Larry Wideman has been released from York County Hospital at Newmarket following surgery. Leslie has been staying with grandma Frisby.
 Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Sherwood visited with her parents in Trenton, Sunday. In the absence of Mrs. Sherwood, Mr. George Sale acted as superintendent. Mrs. Harry Forrester is the new teacher of the Young Teens since Rev. Davison now has a service at Locust Hill.
 Rev. Davison is attending Toronto Conference this week at York University.
 The Official Board meets May 19 at 8:15 p.m. Anyone who holds any church office is a member. A good attendance is expected.
 Rev. Glen Brubacher, a senior parole officer in Family Court was the guest speaker at the May meeting of the U.C.W. held at the church.
 Eighty-six members and guests of the Markham-Unionville Lions Club enjoyed a dinner meeting in the church basement, May 7.

Children campaign against local litterbugs

On Sunday afternoon, dozens of children embarked on a clean-up campaign throughout the Village of Stouffville. It marked the start of Beautifully Stouffville Week and includes all age categories. Some of the refuse collected is shown here by 9 year old Elizabeth Harris, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Harris, Glad Park Avenue. —Jas. Thomas
