Three family graduates in one year

The year 1970 is unique for the family of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Drudge, R.R.1, Stouffville. A son and two daughters are all graduates from their respective schools. Kenneth Wayne, 25, received his B.A. degree, May 24 at Waterloo Lutheran University, majoring in psychology. He and his wife have accepted teaching positions at Red Bay, Labrador. Eileen Marie, 22, graduated June 6 from the Kitchener-Waterloo School of Nursing and Donna Catherine, 17, has completed her 4-year course at Markham Dist. High School. All three were home, June 7, when a gathering in their honor was held at the family farm, conc. 10, Markham.

STOUFFVILLE SCENE

What's going on

Bake Sale
The annual home-baking sale, sponsored by the Stouffville Home and School Association, will be held at the Civic Square, Saturday morning at 10 a.m. Support of this project would be appreciated.

Miss Mary Patten and Mr. George Guerin of North Bay spent a weekend recently with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Chester Patten, Market Street. On June 6, friends from Gormley, Bethesda and Aurora gathered to shower Mary with many beautiful and useful gifts in honor of her forthcoming marriage, June 27.

Chicken barbecue
The annual chicken barbecue, sponsored by the Lions Club in the Stouffville Park is Wednesday, June 24.

Awards' Nights
Awards' nights for elementary school students in Stouffville have been arranged as follows: Summit View and St. Mark's, June 22; Jr. High School, June 23, and Orchard Park, June 25.

The Friendship Club will meet Thursday in the Legion Hall. All senior citizens welcome. Those wishing a ride call 640-2443 and 640-3663.

Mrs. E.H. Neville has returned home after spending a week with her sister, Mrs. Lodema Fleischer of Downsview.

Mr. and Mrs. Norm Baker have moved from their home on Rose Avenue to take up residence in the Dublin Apartments, Markham.

George Baker, Manitoba Street, remains a patient in Scarborough Centenary Hospital. He was admitted there June 6, after suffering burns to his face while at work in the Tribune printing plant on Main Street. The cause of his accident is still not known. Mr. Baker's room number is 711.

Plan to attend the Bingo in the Whitchurch Centennial Centre, Friday, June 19 at eight o'clock.

Sponsor trip
Two Grade 6 students of Summit View Public School won expense-paid trips to Ottawa this week, sponsored by the Stouffville Kinsmen Club. Children were asked to participate in written compositions on the work of service clubs in Stouffville. The winners were Douglas Marshman and Lorraine Hudson. The class left by bus on Tuesday and returned Wednesday. The pupils were able to cover a portion of the cost through miscellaneous projects carried on in recent weeks.

A welcome is extended to Mr. and Mrs. William Willcocks and family, formerly of Musselman's Lake and now residing at 15 Montreal Street.

Village Clerk Ralph Corner attended the convention of the Ontario Municipal Association in New Liskeard dealing specifically with problems related to villages and towns. Clerk Corner is a member of the organization's executive.

Host veterans

On Sunday afternoon The Legion and Auxiliary Ladies hosted a bus load of Veterans from Sunnybrook Hospital, Toronto for the third successive year. Among the group was Mr. Cleve Pearson a former Stouffville resident who will be celebrating his 90th birthday, Thursday. Mr. Allan McConnochie, also from Stouffville entertained them during the afternoon with music on the piano and Mr. Art Latham also entertained the boys.

Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Baker, Rupert Avenue were visitors Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Irvin Winch in Keswick.

Recent visitors with Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Baker, Rupert Avenue were Mr. and Mrs. Morgan Baker of York Mills, Mrs. Floyd Ratcliff, R.R.4, Stouffville, Mr. Roy Stewart of Baker Hill and his mother from England.

Bob Hassard, Lloyd Avenue, is out of hospital following surgery on his knee.

Mr. and Mrs. Ross Grainge and family are new residents in The Ponderosa at 557 Maystone Court. They lived previously south of Ringwood.

A section of the new senior citizens' apartment north of Elm Road, partially collapsed, Thursday afternoon. One of the main girders buckled under the weight of the flooring above.

Mennonite relief sale
A number of residents from the Stouffville-Markham area attended the Ontario Mennonite Relief Sale, May 30 at New Hamburg, Ontario. Receipts this year exceeded $56,000, an increase of $9,000 over 1969 and $24,000 over 1967 when the sale was first held.

Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Pearce and family, R.R.3, Claremont, had been planning for several weeks now to travel down to Guyana, South America, where Gord had accepted a teaching position in a new school there. However word has been received that the building is not yet completed, so the change in locations will have to wait one year. Mr. and Mrs. Pearce reside on the Markham-Pickering townline.

A private funeral service was conducted in Stouffville for the late Reginald Heise, son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Duncan Heise. The family resided at the corner of William and Main St., some forty years ago in the home presently occupied by Mr. and Mrs. Percy Brillinger.

The Grade 2 class at Orchard Park, participated in the 'Project Schoolhouse', whereby funds were sent from Ontario to assist in the building of a school in the Commonwealth Caribbean Island of St. Vincent. Staff teacher, Miss Lois Flett has received a letter of appreciation from Mrs. Betty Kennedy, chairman of Hon. Wm. Davis' Advisory Committee on Educational Assistance.

Mrs. Mary Lemmon, a well-known and highly respected resident of Brougham, will celebrate her 92nd birthday, June 28.

Long service recognized

Mr. and Mrs. Ira Burkholder, Market Street, Stouffville, have retired after 14 years of service on the caretaking staff of Stouffville District Secondary School. They were presented with a suitcase and a school letter by Peter Sanderson at an assembly held recently in the school.

York realtors garden contest

YORK CTY. Last year owners of several beautiful gardens in the York County area received recognition for their contributions to the beauty of the district in the York County and District Real Estate Board's first home garden contest.

If you are proud of your garden why not enter the second annual home garden contest, sponsored by this same group? First prize, as last year, will be an oil painting of the recipients own garden by Langley Donges, OIP of Richmond Hill. Suitable engraved stainless steel garden spades will be awarded to the next three winners.

Contestants must be residents of York County north of Steeles Avenue. Free entry forms may be picked up at your local Realtor's Office, garden centre or from the local horticultural society.

Although judging will not be done until September, entries must be post-marked not later than June 30.

Further information on the contest may be obtained by phoning Mrs. G. Cruse at 884-2813.

Mrs. Rie Helsloot of Amsterdam, Holland, is spending six weeks with Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Lehnar, Stouffville R.R.2. Her first trip to Canada, Mrs. Helsloot arrived by plane June 11. Mrs. Lehnar and Mrs. Helsloot have not been together for over 25 years.

Fatal heart seizure

Service was conducted Monday afternoon from the Ogdan Funeral Home, Agincourt for Mr. Ross Lamoreaux, Montreal Street, Stouffville. Mr. Lamoreaux died suddenly, Saturday morning following a heart attack. He was 49. Surviving, besides his wife, the former Dorothy Smyth, are two daughters, Carol (Mrs. Wm. Renaud), of Willowdale, Betty (Mrs. R. Brenn), Toronto; one son, James at home; one granddaughter, Cheryl Renaud and his step-mother, Mrs. Maisie Lamoreaux of Milliken. Interment was made at Ebenezer Cemetery, Milliken.

The Stouffville-Ringwood and Bloomington churches will once again hold drive-in church services in the Stouffville Plaza, every Sunday evening throughout the summer season, beginning June 21.
