"I agree," said the principal to the doting mother, "that your son may have a spark of genius. But, in my opinion, he also has ignition trouble."

Public appreciation of a dedicated teacher

What price dedication? Over a period of 44 years, Myrtle Hamill, a teacher at Hagerman and Markham public schools must have asked herself this question on many occasions. The answer was obvious, Thursday, as friends, fellow teachers and pupils past and present honored her at a farewell gathering in Franklin School. One of those attending the gathering was former Markham principal, Duard Rose, seen chatting here with Miss Hamill during the reception, Thursday afternoon. —Jas. Thomas.
