Walter, the Red Cross Safety Symbol' (Peter Sanderson) visited Orchard Park School, Friday, to impress on the children, water safety rules to be practiced while swimming this summer. He was accompanied by pool director, Jim Hill and assistants, Donna Skinner and Sue Schell.

Whitchurch constable Douglas Murray was called to the home of Robert Herbert, Bloomington, Friday, to destroy the family dog, suspected of rabies.

Mr. Joseph Murray Sr. is a patient in York County Hospital, Newmarket, following a stroke. His room number is 537.

Commencing this Saturday, July 4, Tribune Office Supplies store will close at 1 p.m. for the months of July and August.

Mr. Ross Phelps, music instructor in Stouffville's elementary schools for several years, has been transferred to another area of York County. Mr. Phelps is the organist in the Stouffville United Church.

Mr. and Mrs. Harn Terpstra and daughter, Greit, arrived June 16 from Holland for the wedding of their daughter, Cathy to Mr. William Hughes. While here, they are visiting with other members of the family, Mr. and Mrs. E. VanderKooij, Victoria Square; Mr. and Mrs. H. Boerstra, Don Mills; Mr. and Mrs. T. Boerstra, Scarborough and Mr. and Mrs. Murray Stewart, Stouffville.

Watson family reunion

STOUFFVILLE — Thirty-six members of the Watson Family met June 21 for their annual reunion in the Stouffville Park. President Clifford Watson welcomed the cousins and conducted the business. Congratulations were offered to Mr and Mrs Arthur Dowswell on the occasion of their recent 50th wedding anniversary and to Mr and Mrs Donald Watson, married in May. A vote of thanks was tendered the program committee—Donald, Linda and Eva Watson. The picnic on the third Sunday in June, 1971, is planned for the same site. Officers are: President, Mrs. Clifford Watson, Newmarket; 1st Vice—Mrs. Edith Bacon, Stouffville; Treasurer—Mr Charles Watson, Uxbridge and Secretary—Lillian Dowswell, Toronto.

Mr. and Mrs. Tom Lang left Sunday by air to spend six weeks in Scotland.

Congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. Lemon Clarke, Goodwood, on the occasion of their 50th wedding anniversary celebrated June 30.

Mrs. Frank Rowbotham, formerly of Church Street, South, is in York County Hospital, Newmarket. She suffered a fall last week, breaking her hip. An operation to re-set the fracture was performed Saturday.

David and Becky Herbert, Hawthorne Avenue, left Toronto by American Airlines Thursday to spend six weeks with relatives in the United States. They will be travelling in Arkansas, Oklahoma, New Mexico, and will be visiting the Indian Reservations and the Grand Canyon in Arizona. Tim Herbert left this week via Air Canada for New York City and Hartford, Connecticut. He will be spending the summer with his aunt and uncle, Mr. and Mrs. Peter J. Gunas, at Columbia, Connecticut.

Mr. and Mrs. George Wilson and family have taken up residence in the Rose Avenue home owned formerly by Mr. and Mrs. Norm Baker. Mr. and Mrs. Wilson's bungalow, a few doors to the east, has been sold to Mr. and Mrs. John Greenshield, Stouffville, R.R.3.

Mrs. Gordon Burkholder, Edward Street, is a patient in Scarboro Centenary Hospital. Her many friends wish her a speedy recovery.

Howie Jones, Steven Schell, Doug Feasby and Keith Acton are attending the Billy Harris-Dave Keon hockey school at the Doublerink Plus One, this week.

Mr. and Mrs. John Williamson of Montreal Street have sold their home to Mr. and Mrs. Brian Caterer of Scarboro. The deal was completed by Sybil Houston, of the Shea Real Estate. Mr. and Mrs. Williamson will be moving to an apartment in Markham.

Honor retiring bus operators

Drivers for Heise Bus Lines, along with their husbands and wives, held a surprise party, June 25, for Albert, Roy and Alma Heise, who retired from the school transportation business this month following 26 years of service throughout the area. Mr. Albert Heise started his business in 1944, taking students from the surrounding district to the Stouffville Continuation School (now Summitview) in a 1942 International Panel Truck. Buses were hard to come by during wartime, but, in 1945, Mr. Heise was able to obtain one from the United States. Since that time, the Heise fleet has grown to 18 vehicles, all of which will be sold this summer. Pictured here are the Heises, on the right, and drivers, Darlene Brown, Anne Churchill, Lois Wideman, Dorothy Wideman, Molly McManningwell, Marlon Castle, Gert Jones, Ruth Griffith, Bill Keeping, Alvin Mackey, Meradith Ash, Sherman Arnold, Wellington Yake, Fred Longino, Earl Brillinger, and Brent Weldon. Absent were: Mrs. Morten, Orval Campbell and Harold McDowell. —Peter Harris.

A farewell gathering was held Sunday evening following the service at the Baptist Church in honor of Rev. and Mrs. Gordon Gooderham and family who are leaving to take up other duties. They were presented with a gift of money, luggage and gifts for the children.

Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Wideman, of Castor, Alberta are visiting cousins in this vicinity. He is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Wideman, one time Dickson's Hill residents.

Mr. and Mrs. Don Cale and family of Yorkton, Saskatchewan, visited for the past week with Mr. and Mrs. Chester Pattenden and Mary of Market Street and attended the wedding, June 27 of Mary Pattenden and George Gueren.

Forty relatives and friends attended a gathering at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Reesor, June 20, to honor Mr. and Mrs. Roy Brown of Eau Claire Ontario on the occasion of their Silver Wedding anniversary. The happy couple were presented with a camera which should prove useful when they travel West later this summer.

David L. Ferguson of Stouffville has received his diploma in Forest Techniques from Sir Sandford Fleming College at a graduation ceremony, May 16 in George Street United Church, Peterborough. A graduate of Stouffville Dist. Secondary School, he is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Donald Ferguson, Frederick Street.
