Work bees in Goodwood Park

By Eleanor Todd
GOODWOOD - I hope you noticed that last week's weather prediction proved to be 100 percent accurate. It did not rain on Thursday's work bee at Goodwood Park. Several men attended and were able to accomplish quite a bit before darkness closed in. A second bee was scheduled for last night (Wed.) and a third is set for next Thursday, July 16, so you've still got a chance to go and lend a hand if you haven't already. After the park buildings are repaired the men intend to paint them and install posts which will separate the parking lot from the baseball diamond and (hopefully) prevent certain characters from doing U-ees which tear up the sod.

It did rain late Friday afternoon right on schedule and completely drenched the U.C. Sunday School's Strawberry Bonanza. They were sold out at 7:30 and by that time the sun had come out and dried everyone off.

The only good baseball news last week was the Pee-wees' win against Cartwright last Monday night in Goodwood Park. The other teams played two games each and lost every one although the Squirts missed out by only one run when they played Port Perry. During Thursday's Midget game with Greenbank, Goodwood catcher Jim Geer split his finger open and required 6 stitches.

Lois Watson will be in Uxbridge Hospital for some time yet before her burns are healed. They are giving her considerable pain. Mrs. Violet Sheehy

James Thompson, Ted Gray, Reg Nighswander, Carl Michell and Allen Kayes. Flower Bearers were - Orval Fretz, Lorne Michell, John Torrance, Michael Cassidy, Glen Fretz and Jimmie Thompson Jr.

Wins gold medal

Edith Sherry Lynne Hamby, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Cadieux, Mindemoya, Ontario, has graduated from the University of Toronto with a Bachelor of Science in Forestry degree. Mrs. Hamby also received the Canadian Institute of Forestry gold medal. She plans to continue her studies in Silviculture at Toronto University in the fall.

has returned to Goodwood to stay with Chuck and Lee until Lois can come home. Violet is on the injured list herself. She smashed her thumb in a car door last Monday and it took several stitches to repair it. Lois' neighbour, Jean Bell, is getting her work done with one foot in a cast. She broke it a couple of weeks ago simply by turning around suddenly.

The Hudson boys, Raymond and Ronald, were overnight patients at Uxbridge Hospital last week when their tonsils were removed.

Don and June Harper and family went on a camping holiday to Midland last week but came home early when they got rained out. Brian Plewes enjoyed a fishing weekend with Ted, Linda, Jack and Muriel Todd at their cottage.

Mr. and Mrs. Don Bell enjoyed the company of their daughter, Mrs. Diana Felton, and their grandchildren, Richard and Christine, for a few days last week. They made the trip from Sarnia by train.
