

Women's Tribune

STOUFFVILLE SCENE

What's going on

Miss Dianne Wilkins, formerly of Stouffville and now living at Woodstock, is visiting this week at the home of Mr and Mrs Bill Kamps and family, Rupert Avenue.

Mrs Lloyd Moyer, Dorothy and Mildred, Church Street and Mrs Fred Pilkey, Baker Avenue visited recently with Mrs Jesse Cober, Toronto.

Miss Cindy Tustin visited with her grandparents, Mr and Mrs D. Sheffield at Craighurst.

Mr and Mrs Kenneth Green, Bath, Ontario, have returned home after spending a week with their parents, Mr and Mrs Fred Hope and Mr and Mrs Andy Green and Don.

Bill Dart, Loretta Crescent, a former student of Stouffville Dist. Secondary School, leaves this month for Denver, Colorado where he has accepted a position in the Fitzsimmons General Hospital.

Miss Sandra Rousseau, Rupert Avenue, has left on a tour of England and Europe.

Miss Susan Courage, Lemonville, is enjoying a vacation in England and Europe, returning home later next month.

Mr and Mrs Eugene Baker, Rupert Avenue spent the weekend with their daughter, Elaine, Mr and Mrs Glen Fisher and family in Windsor.

Mrs Mildred Webster of Richmond Hill spent a week with Mr and Mrs Cliff Lemmon, Rupert Avenue.

Miss Dorothy Moyer, Miss Evelyn Rusnell, Miss Verna Arnold and Mrs Irwin Atkinson of Toronto are vacationing at a cottage on the Trent River, near Peterborough.

An interesting program has been arranged for Monday, July 20 in the St. James Presbyterian Church by the Horticultural Society at 8 o'clock. Along with the Flower Show, there will be pictures of Alaska. The program is in charge of Mrs Charlie James, Mrs Noel Avery and Mrs Truman Baxter.

Mrs Clarence Pipher, Baker Avenue had the misfortune to fall at her home last week and break her left arm.

Visitors Monday with Mrs Cliff Lemon were Miss Etta Wright of Kingston, Mrs Pearl Whittlesey, Mrs Susan Hutchinson and Miss Nora Macklem.

Mr and Mrs Harvey Wideman of Castor, Alberta were recent visitors with Mrs Lloyd Moyer, Church Street.

Mrs George Bartholomew and Karen spent a few days in Detroit, Michigan visiting with Mr and Mrs George McRobbie and Mr and Mrs Edward Fockler, former Stouffville residents. Mrs Harold A. ++++++

Mrs. Harold Atkinson and family of Weston are spending a week with her mother, Mrs. Agnes Lewis, George Street.

Tim, Terry, Ted and Tannis Rutledge of Scarborough spent a few holidays with their grandparents, Mr and Mrs Floyd Fairies, Lloyd Avenue.

Following an absence of almost two years, and a trip that has taken him around the world, Warren Hendricks arrived home, Tuesday. He arrived in Vancouver from Japan where Mrs Hendricks was on hand to meet him. Warren is the son of Mr and Mrs C.W. Hendricks, William Street.

Mortician

Glenn L. Smith, son of Mr and Mrs Jacob L. Smith, Stouffville, has successfully completed the Funeral Service Course at Humber College. A graduate of Stouffville Dist. Secondary School, Glenn is now a licensed mortician and employed at the Paul O'Connor Funeral Home, Lawrence Avenue and Pharmacy.

Home for honeymoon Bradley Jakeman and his pretty bride, the former Jeannette Matheson, a stewardess with Western Airlines, spent a portion of their honeymoon at the home of his parents, Mr and Mrs Allan Jakeman, R.R.3, Claremont. The happy couple will take up permanent residence in Los Angeles, California.

Mr and Mrs Tom Wedelstoft, formerly of O'Brien Avenue and now living in Toronto, have recently returned from a trip to Expo '70 in Osaka, Japan.

appleton and hughes

Mrs George Martin Rev. Douglas Davis conducted the funeral service, Monday, for Mrs George Martin who passed away on Friday in Riverdale Hospital, Toronto. Mrs Martin, the former Mabel Welsh, resided at Lemonville in earlier years, where her husband operated a blacksmith shop. Later, they resided on Edward Street and Main Street in Stouffville. Surviving is one son, Keith of Scarborough and two grandchildren, Bill and Brian.

Miss Mary Pattenden was the recipient of many lovely gifts at gatherings held prior to her marriage, June 27, to Mr George Guerin of North Bay. Mrs Shirley Church was the hostess for a shower at her home in Toronto attended by former friends of Grace Hospital. Later, Bethesda, Gormley and Aurora friends and neighbors gathered at her parent's home on Market Street and a family gathering at the home of Mr and Mrs Roy Smith, north of Gormley showered Mary and George with many gifts. The staff of the Ontario Hospital, North Bay, where Mary is nursing, presented her with a pair of lovely leaded crystal candleholders. The Salvation Army corps also tendered a shower for them.

Ninety blooms from two separate bulbs, are the number of regal lilies in flower at the farm residence of Mr and Mrs Wm. Paisley, conc. 6 Whitchurch. The bulbs were planted three years ago.

Mr. and Mrs. Anthony Owen
A friendship that started in public school

GREENWOOD Greenwood United Church was the scene of a pretty candlelight wedding on June 20, 1970 when Bonnie Marie Gardiner became the bride of Anthony Owen. The bride is the daughter of Mr. Anthony Gardiner and the late Mrs. Velma Gardiner of Brooklin. The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Denis Owen of Greenwood.

Rev. T.H. Fleetham performed the 7 o'clock ceremony. Mr. D. Copp of Pickering was the organist.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, was lovely in a white organdy over satin gown which was trimmed with lace. Her veil which formed a train flowed from a headpiece of trilliums and pearls. She carried a bouquet of red roses.

Mrs. Caroline Horton was matron of honor and the bridesmaids were Joan Gardiner, sister of the bride and Karen MacMorine. They were attractive in mint green lace over hammered satin gowns with matching accessories. They carried pink carnations and lily of the valley.

Sherry Lee Gardiner, sister of the bride, was a pretty flowergirl also dressed in mint green lace over hammered satin. Michael Owen, brother of the groom, was ring bearer.

Robert McTaggart of Markham was groomsmen. The ushers were Kenneth Gardiner, brother of the bride, of Brooklin and Gerald Pegg of Stouffville.

The reception was held in the Brooklin United Church Christian Education Centre which was decorated in white, pink and green, the color theme used in the setting

Mr and Mrs Sherman Arnold, William street, accompanied by Miss Dora Doan of Newmarket, visited their cousins, Mrs Isabel Doan and Mrs Mabel Barnes at Elmvale,

Mr. and Mrs. Anthony Owen, married June 20, 1970 in the Greenwood United Church. —Robert Aldsworth.

for the ceremony. The groom's mother received the guests wearing a pink Italian silk linen dress with pink accessories. Included in the guests was Mr. Jerry Stachow who saw the bride and groom start school the same day in Greenwood and was their principal for several years. Mr. Douglas McFadyen of Unionville was Master of Ceremonies. For travelling to Madawaska Valley the bride chose a white slack suit with white accessories. Among the many gifts received was a lovely tray from the Greenwood United Church Sunday School of which the bridegroom is the Superintendent.

Golden anniversary
UXBRIDGE — Mr and Mrs Russel Acton of Uxbridge celebrated their Golden Wedding Anniversary Saturday, July 11. The couple have two sons, Gerald of Stouffville and Donald of Oshawa and one daughter, Mrs Ross Evans of Uxbridge. There are eleven grandchildren. Among those present for the occasion were Mr Acton's two nieces and a nephew from Wisconsin.

Mr Roy Wagg, Harold Street, is a patient in St. Michael's Hospital, Toronto.

The residence of Mr and Mrs Martin Wencel, Stouffer Street, is a floral beauty spot this summer. Particularly eye-catching are baskets of begonias and fuchsia as well as a beautiful border of delphiniums.

COTTAGES COTTAGES
Make Your Dream A Reality
Completely Erected On Your Lot
MATERIALS ONLY PLANS AVAILABLE
FREE ESTIMATES ON YOUR PLAN
Open Friday Evening Till 9 p.m.
BOLD
Ratcliff Lumber Ltd
UNIONVILLE GORMLEY
Hwy. 7 - Kennedy Rd. Don Mills at Gormley
297-1661 888-1191

mid-summer Sale

Special feature during sale only Penmans all wool stretch socks regularly $1.50 now only 88¢

Suits: a large selection of year round and tropical weight suits in the latest shades and styles "Cambridge", "Botany 500", and "Saville Row" regularly from $80. to $145. now priced from $58. to $105. you save up to 30%

Sports Coats: double and single breasted blazers & sport coats in medium and lightweight fabrics, big savings regularly from $49. to $110. now from $25. and up you save up to 50%

Slacks: medium and lightweight dress slacks in the all new fashion looks from Riviera, Keithmoor & Nash regularly from $14.95 to $27.50 now priced from $10.50 and up you save up to 25%

Made to Measure: 20% off regular prices.

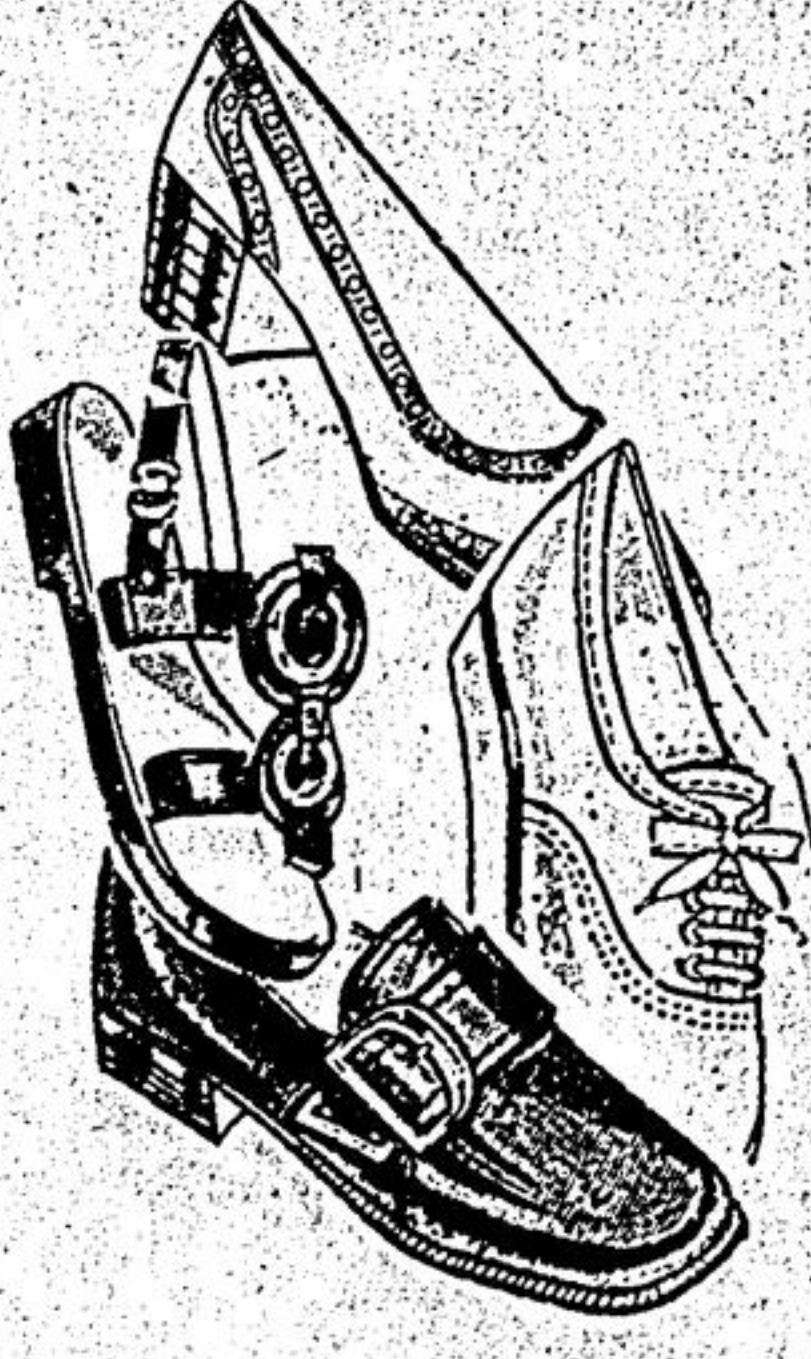

appleton & hughes ltd. the man's shop markham shopping centre markham, ontario where high fashion meets good taste 294-3520

SUMMER CLEARANCE

of SHOES

FOR MEN FOR WOMEN FOR CHILDREN

20% TO 40% OFF

OPEN THURS. & FRI. NIGHTS TILL 9.00 P.M.

LEHMAN'S SHOES
9 Main West - Stouffville - 640-3753