Mr. and Mrs. Robt. McTaggart

Trip to Bermuda

GREENWOOD — Robert Lloyd McTaggart son of Mrs. Mildred McTaggart and the late Mr. Charles McTaggart of Greenwood recently took as his bride Loretta Maria Natale, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Nicholas Natale of Toronto.

The ceremony was performed by Father James Mason in Our Lady Of The Assumption Toronto on May 2, 1970 at 8 o'clock.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, was lovely in a white satin and beaded lace gown with long lace train and short veil. She carried pink and white roses.

Anna Marie Vanderzon was the matron of honor and the bridesmaids were Gail Andreoli and Tina Natale (sister of the bride) all of Toronto. They were very pretty in lime green gowns. The matron of honor carried orange and yellow roses with carnations and the other attendants orange and white nosegays.

Lisa McTaggart, niece of the groom, of Greenwood was a cute little flower girl gowned in white.

Tony Owen of Greenwood was the groomsman. The ushers were Jim Thornton and Gerald Pegg (cousin of the groom) of Stouffville. They wore black Edwardian tuxedos.

The reception was held at the Town House, Eglinton Avenue, Toronto. The bride's mother received the over 200 guests in a mauve and silver dress with complimenting accessories. The groom's mother assisted her in a dress of aqua blue with matching accessories.

For travelling to Bermuda the bride chose a powder blue dress and coat ensemble.

The happy couple are making their home in Markham.
