

Dr. Darling memorial fund reaches $600

By Eleanor Todd
GOODWOOD — The Dr. Darling Memorial Fund Committee is pleased to report that the bank account set up for this purpose has grown to $600. Sunday, July 26, has been chosen as the final day for accepting contributions, so if you still intend to donate, please keep that day in mind. Perhaps we will have enough to purchase cornerstones as well.

Elsie Boland's little grandson, Jay Peden, is in hospital with a broken thigh. He was a passenger in his grandmother's car when it was involved in an accident on the Bloomington Road about 3 weeks ago. The circumstances were almost identical to the accident in April in which Marina Coburn and Dot Elson were injured. A car, southbound on the 9th conc., drove through the stop sign and hit Elsie's car, forcing it into the ditch. Elsie suffered bruises and pulled muscles but Jay's injuries weren't discovered until later.

Five carloads of Goodwood Baptist Mission Circle members were guests for lunch at the Lake Simcoe cottage of Mr and Mrs Lorne Tindall and family July 5. Later, some of the group travelled on to Lakeview Manor at Beaverton and presented a program for the entertainment of the residents.

At a recent meeting of the Goodwood unit of the U.C.W., the ladies presented Mrs Dickie Young with a farewell gift in appreciation of her efforts on behalf of the group during her residence here. Dickie and George and family are moving to Toronto July 30.

Mr and Mrs Ralph Ingleby and family of Coehill, Ontario were in the area visiting former friends and neighbors.

Bobby Yake, working on a sheep farm near Woodville since the last day of school, came home for a visit with his family last weekend.

Bill and Joyce McGuckin entertained friends at their home Saturday night with a party in honor of Shirley Weing's birthday.

Lorraine and Merl Harman and family enjoyed a camping weekend at Lake Kushog where Harv Bunker is building a cottage. The Norman Lynch family spent the weekend camping at Blind River. Rhonda and her mother were badly scratched and bruised when they fell over some rocks while out hunting blueberries. And if that wasn't enough, they forgot to put the cat out before they left home.

The new United Church minister, Mr John Hopkins, has spent several days at the manse. His family has not yet moved out from Toronto. Mr and Mrs Robt. Cudlip enjoyed his company for dinner Sunday evening. On Saturday, Master Andrew Cudlip almost caught a fish a foot long when he was fishing with his family in the pouring rain at Eel Creek.

I'll bet you forgot about the work bee at the park again this evening. (Thursday) If it's not too late, you really ought to drop around. There is a lot to be done and only a few hands to do it.

Fined $275

UXBRIDGE TWP. — Driving while his licence was disqualified and without auto insurance cost a 21 year old Uxbridge district man, $275 when he appeared before Judge Jermyn.

Murray Hall, Uxbridge, R.R.3, was fined $200 for having no licence and an additional $75 for operating a car without protective insurance. Hall entered a plea of guilty.

According to evidence, Hall's car slammed into a tree on June 6 at 3:40 a.m., injuring both himself and his brother. The crash occurred on conc. 2.

In July, 1968, it was revealed, Hall was convicted of dangerous driving and had his licence suspended for 6 months. It had never been reinstated.

Road superintendent completes course

Stouffville road superintendent, Ron Gibson, Rupert Avenue, was presented with a diploma by reeve Ken Laushway, Thursday evening, following his successful completion of a 3-year course on road and bridge construction and maintenance. The classes were held at the University of Guelph and sponsored by the Ontario Good Roads Association. Four hundred employees from across the Province were enrolled.
