

Expand Dagmar ski area

An expansion program, to include a new 1000 foot T-bar lift and three new runs, is currently underway at the Dagmar Ski Club, near Balsam. The lift will give skiers access to 11 different hills next winter. Designed by club owner, Gabor Marton, the construction is being supervised by Port Perry school teacher, Larry Burt, a member of the nearby Sky Loft Ski Club, who built the new lift facilities there last winter.

W.I. enjoys mystery bus trip

By Jean Leaf
BUTTONVILLE - The Buttonville W.I. members and friends enjoyed another mystery bus trip last Wednesday. The group of 41 left about 12:30 p.m., by Gray Coach with Gordon Laver, Richmond Hill as their driver. Before the afternoon was over, they had visited the McMichael Gallery at Kleinburg, stopped at High Park for coffee in the Grenadier Restaurant and viewed the flower gardens at Grenadier Pond. They also took a boat tour of the Toronto Islands before dining at the Old Mill. People travel to Timbuktu and back these days, but several on this trip had never seen these beauty spots in their own bailiwick. Hostesses of the day were Mrs. Walter Craig, Miss Cora Brodie and Mrs. Ernest Johnson. The Jack Bishop family left last weekend to travel to Ottawa and on through the States to Washington, D.C. They return this weekend, and on July 27 Jack and Dorothy leave for England on a two-week combined vacation and business trip. They return August 10. During their absence, Mrs. Bishop's sister, Mrs. Bonnie Chapell and her two children will hold the fort with David, Leona, Betty and Randy. Speaking of holidays - Keith and Milly Hood are looking forward to a three-week tour of Britain and the Continent from September 12 to October 4, when the East York Barbershoppers combine a singing and sight-seeing tour. They will spend eight days in England and Wales, and nine days on the Continent, visiting Holland, Germany, Switzerland and France and one week will be devoted to their own pursuits. Sounds wonderful. Mr. and Mrs. Frank Maw have returned from a six-week's trip to England - their first since coming to Canada 22 years ago. They visited family and friends at Colchester and Sheffield, and discovered old familiar haunts. Mrs. Maw says they found the country prettier and more attractive than they remembered. And at the old Roman city of Colchester Mr. Maw, the clockmaker, found much to interest him in a rare collection of clocks there. MARKHAM TWP. - Damage is estimated at $700 in a rear end collision on Don Mills Road south of 17th Avenue, July 16. Involved were vehicles driven by Douglas Page, 22, of Gormley R.R.2, and Angela Bender, 39. The car driven by Mrs. Bender was southbound and slowed quickly for a turning truck. Page approached over a slight grade and was unable to stop.
