Mrs. Muriel Cottam

Operated antique store

By Jean Leaf
BUTTONVILLE — Mrs Muriel Cottam, well-known former antique dealer at Buttonville and later in Unionville, passed away last weekend in Scarborough General Hospital. Mr Cottam predeceased her a few months earlier. Mr and Mrs Cottam operated the antique business in the former Les Hood store and their items were much sought after by such companies as Eaton's and Simpson's. She opened a shop in Unionville in June and was there only two days before admitted to hospital with a liver ailment. Service was held from the Dixon Funeral Home, Markham with interment at Simcoe. Earlier in her career, Mrs Cottam served in the position of secretary for former Ontario Premier, Leslie Frost.

Last weekend Rae and Betty Donaldson and their family took off in their camper for Copetown and a visit with Hugh and Katherine McMaster.

The Armstrong family took a 'do your own thing' holiday this year. Neal is in New England, Anna and Nancy went cottaging, while Bruce and Derek visited the Calgary Stampede. Bruce said they resident taking part in the performance there none other than Donald Tribbling driving a wagon team of six horses. Jim Gray, a nephew of Mrs S.J. English, is a director of the Stampede.

Mrs Joy Crawford is conducting Language course at Toronto Teachers' College this month. Joy is on the staff at Buttonville Primary School.

Mr and Mrs Ross Hord and Mr and Mrs Edgar Fuller went to Belleville recently to visit David Hord and his family. Unfortunately, last week Mr Ross Hord became ill, and is in Toronto General Hospital.

Mrs Bert Craigie is at Branson Hospital for surgery this week.

Sunday, Mrs A. W. Miller was taken to York Central Hospital after a severe fall which resulted in a broken nose, a broken right wrist and other injuries.

Bill and Molly Hood have moved into their new home by the river and last week held 'open house' for a number of friends.

Rick Tribbling's pony won second prize at Oshawa Fair Saturday. The first prize ribbon went to Lloyd Weatherill's entry from Unionville.
