Mr. and Mrs. Steven Kennedy
Beautiful wedding in St. Andrew's United

MARKHAM — White gladioli and daisies formed a pretty setting in St. Andrew's United Church, Markham for the marriage of Wanda June Coxworth and Steve Kennedy on June 27, 1970.

The bride is the daughter of Mr and Mrs Lloyd Coxworth, R.R.2, Markham and the groom the son of Florence Kennedy, Main Street, Markham.
The ceremony at 4 o'clock was performed by Rev. Donald H. Parr. Mrs Peggie Clark of Markham was the organist and accompanied the soloist Bronwyn Read of Toronto, cousin of the bride. She sang The Wedding Prayer after the bridal party had assembled at the altar and Lift Up Thine Eyes Lord, during the signing of the register.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride was lovely in a full length gown of white peau de broche with an empire waist trimmed with white, yellow centred daisies, high rolled lace collar, bell shaped lace sleeves and a cathedral train. Her headpiece was an old fashioned white wide brimmed straw hat with two tiered veil. She carried a cascade of daisies and baby's breath which was centred with a red stoned heart.

The maid of honor was Jan Arnold of Markham. The bridesmaids were Mrs Beverly Caldwell, Markham; Shirley Lajeunesse, Toronto; and Debbie Coxworth, Markham, cousin of the bride as junior attendant. The senior attendants were attractive in pale yellow puff crepe full length gowns with empire waist trimmed with a lace ruffle centred with yellow ribbon, scooped neckline and sleeveless. They wore over the elbow white gloves, white shoes and heart shaped pearl pendants with tinted yellow daisies in their hair. The junior bridesmaid was pretty in a white puff crepe full length gown with peter pan collar, puffed sleeves, gathered waist with pale yellow sash tied at the back and accented with white daisies. She wore white shoes and gloves, a heart shaped locket and a white daisy tiara on her head. Her hair fell in a yellow ribboned braid down her back.

The groomsmen were Merlin Leney of R.R.1 Uxbridge. The Ushers were Pat Kennedy, brother of the groom, Bryan Coxworth, brother of the bride and Tom Caldwell. The groom and his attendants all wore charcoal grey suits with yellow shirts, yellow carnations and dark green ties. Their shirts were the same shade as the bridesmaids gowns.

The reception was held at the Pepper Pot Lodge, Preston Lake. The mother of the bride received in a coral polyester satin short dress, semi-fitted, A line with short sleeves. She wore white accessories with coral daisies in her hair and a corsage of white and coral daisies. The groom's mother assisted in a mauve crimpolene coat dress, military style with long sleeves. She wore mauve sandals with a mauve bow in her hair, a corsage of white daisies

The bride is the former Sharon Hill, daughter of Mr and Mrs G. R. Hill, Toronto and the groom is the son of Mr and Mrs Ralph Boyd of Stouffville. Given in marriage by her father, the bride was lovely in a silk shantung gown which she made herself. It was accented with white flowers on the bodice and sleeves. She carried yellow roses and white carnations.

Attending the bride were Michelle Moffat; Carol Harris and Candy Walker all of Toronto and Kathy Boyd of Stouffville. They were attractive in pale yellow voile gowns appliqued with white daisies. They carried yellow daisies.
