Late John Farquharson

Lived near Gormley

By Evelyn Milsted
GORMLEY — Sympathy of the community is extended to Mrs John Farquharson and family in the sudden passing of Mr Farquharson at McKellar, July 30. Mr and Mrs Farquharson farmed here for many years and the family grew up in the area. Service was held Saturday from the Marshall Funeral Home, Richmond Hill.

Mr Alvin Farmer underwent surgery at Shouldice Clinic, Thornhill. Miss Marilyn Stacey, R.N., of Richmond, Virginia spent several days with her parents, Mr and Mrs Geo. Stacey, and Mrs Ray Hawkins attended a baby shower at the home of Mrs Bruce Cullen, Mount Albert in honor of Mrs LeRoy Boker and son.

Farmers install grain dryers

By Jean Leaf
BUTTONVILLE — It seems early for fall harvest, but some farmers commenced combining the last week in July. With Lawrie's Mill at Markham closed, several have installed their own grain-drying units.

Christine Craigie was among the visitors at Camp Big Canoe near Bracebridge. Her sister Irene is vacationing with relatives in Nova Scotia, and their mother Mrs. Ruby Craigie is recuperating from recent surgery at Branson Hospital.

The John Buchanan family has been holidaying at Haliburton.

Mrs. Wm. Podick has returned from a recent stay in hospital, and is making good progress.

Services at Brown's Corners Church will be conducted by Rev. Bradley Cruxton throughout the month of August, and until September 13, when Rev. Chris Dugan returns from vacation.

Mrs. Donald Reesor, director of music, is also having a few free Sundays of organ duty. In her absence, Sharon Buchanan, John Stewart, Mrs. Joy Crawford, Mrs. Jim Wolfe and Mrs. Marguerite Jones have been filling in.

Late Sam Fingold
A private service was held for the late Samuel Fingold, well-known in the Goodwood, Claremont and Stouffville areas, following his sudden passing Aug. 2 at Roches Point. Mr. Fingold was connected with theatre interests and the steel industry. Besides his wife, he is survived by two sons, John Paul and David Bruce.
