STOUFFVILLE SCENE What's going on

Forty cents stolen
A recent news report concerning an alleged break-in at the Stouffville Dist. Secondary School mentioned a 'quantity of money' taken from the caretakers' room. Through The Tribune, Principal Wm. Duxbury would like it known that the amount of the theft was only 40 cents and not a large sum as some readers might have concluded.

Larry Bacon, Church Street, is attending the Ontario Athletic Leadership Camp at Longford Mills, near Orillia, for two weeks.

Work is underway on the new home of Mr. and Mrs. Don Hope, east of town. D & A Construction, Stouffville, R.R.4, are the builders.

The annual Stouffville Horticultural Flower Show is Thursday, Aug. 20 (today) in the Masonic Hall, Ninth Line North. The public is invited to view the displays from 2 to 5 and 7 to 9 p.m.

Mrs. Arthur Wideman, Claremont, R.R.3, is enjoying a visit with family relatives in London, England.

In the recent list of Fall Fair dates, published in The Tribune, Uxbridge was omitted. The date this year is Oct. 10. The president is Frank Hendy, Claremont, R.R.1.

Heather Grant, daughter of Rev. and Mrs. Stanley Grant, Glad Park Avenue and Karen Jones, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ken Jones, Markham, R.R.2, have returned from a month's tour of England, Wales and Scotland.

The lovely home of Mrs. Jim Nauta, R.R.4, Stouffville, was the scene of a pleasant afternoon gathering, Aug. 12 when 35 patients and staff of the Claremont Nursing Home were entertained. Participants in the program were members of the Lemonville United Church Women. The hymn-singing was accompanied by Mrs. Ernsten on an electric organ.

Congratulations to Mrs. Nellie Porter, a long-time resident at Musselman's Lake, on placing third for her knitting exhibit in the handicraft display at the C.N.E. Mrs. Porter submitted her beautiful afghan only after much coaxing from her family and friends. The accomplishment is even more note-worthy since Mrs. Porter underwent surgery on her eyes (Glaucoma) and although her sight is not as good as she would like, she has not allowed this handicap to discourage her endeavors.

A giant corn roast was enjoyed by members of the Peach's gang (1st and 2nd generation) on the lawn at the farm home of Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Grove, west of Mongolia, Saturday night.

Mr. and Mrs. Ron Brillinger have purchased the lovely home of Mr. and Mrs. Wey Schell at the corner of Victoria Street and Main. Mr. Brillinger will utilize a portion of the residence for an insurance office. At present, his office is located in the Village Mall.

Class Re-Union
50 years ago under the leadership of Mrs. Edgar Storry and Rev. Herbert Lee an organized Sunday School class was formed and was very active under the name "Happy Helpers". They brought happiness to many elderly Bloomington citizens. On Wed. August 12 the 6th reunion was held in Stouffville Park. It took the form of a pot luck picnic. The occasion was saddened by the recent passing of Mrs. Otto Tranmer, the assistant class teacher. A get well card was sent to Mrs. Cecil Latham, a class member, who is presently recovering from surgery in Scarborough Hospital. Last year a wrought iron sign, bearing the name Bloomington Methodist Cemetery was erected at the gate by the group. The class was organized 50 years ago and to those present it was a golden reunion. Mrs. Murray Ramer of Apsley came the farthest distance to attend.

Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Carter, Sheila and Joseph of Fort Pierce, Florida, spent a few days over the weekend with Mr. and Mrs. Tom Brown.

Mr. and Mrs. Douglas Huff and children from Goderich are spending 2 weeks with her mother, Mrs. Murray Forgie, Church Street.

Raise $1,600
A fund, started in hope of raising sufficient money to move a century-old log cabin from a site south of Hwy. 7 in Markham Town to the location of the Markham Museum, has now exceeded $1,600. John Lunau informed The Tribune this week. The cost of the project is now estimated at $1,500 and work will begin when the movers are ready. Mathews Bros. of Langstaff have accepted the contract.

Elsie and Tat Aida had as their guests for the recent wedding of their son Ben and the former Dianne Hamerston, Elsie's brother, Carl Anderson and wife Eva of Vancouver and sister, Mrs. Russell

Lyon of Victoria, B.C. Their daughter Margaret was also home from Vancouver Island to attend her brother's wedding.

Mrs. Dorothy Moyer, Church Street, Miss Edna Bricker and Miss Rene Timbers of Toronto are enjoying a week's holiday at Fairhaven Lodge near Beaverton.

Mr. and Mrs. Irvin Geiger of Kitchener spent the weekend with Mr. and Mrs. Russel Smith, Main Street West.

Cousins from Kitchener, Markham, Uxbridge, Gormley and Stouffville assembled at the home of Mrs. Charles Hoover, Hwy. 48, Aug. 13, for a surprise birthday party for Mrs. John Lehman, Mill Street. Over 20 had an enjoyable re-union. After opening a shower of gifts some of Bertie's favorite hymns were played on the organ by Miss Bertha Stouffer. The party ended after a lovely lunch and birthday cake provided by her sister, Mrs. Wiancko and Eldon.

Stouffville lady honored on 100th birthday
Mrs. Agnes West, a patient at Brierbush Hospital, was the toast of the town, Monday, on the occasion of her 100th birthday. A party was held in her honor with family relatives and friends attending from a wide area. Stouffville reeve Ken Laushway extends his personal best wishes. —Jas. Thomas.
