GORMLEY — Two candelabra and an arrangement of white gladioli and pink mums graced the altar of Heise Hill Brethren In-Christ Church, Gormley, for the marriage of Dawn Elizabeth Tatton to J. Carmon Henderson, May 16, 1970.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harold G. Tatton and the groom the son of Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Henderson, R.R.2, Gormley.

The 7 p.m. candlelight ceremony was performed by Rev. Elwood C. Flewelling of Hummelstown, Pennsylvania, and the groom's grandfather Bishop Alvin Winder, D.D.

A milk glass bowl containing pink and white carnations was placed on the organ which was played by Sheila L. Henderson, sister of the groom, Toronto.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, was lovely in an original design from the House of Bianchi, New York. Her gown, which was featured in the New York Times and the Bride Magazine, was an exquisite arrangement of beads and satin braiding on all white silk and worsted lace, full length dress. She wore a matching headpiece with two tiered veiling, cathedral length and carried a teardrop crescent of stephanotis centred with a pink throated white orchid.

Mrs. David W. Sykes of Storrs, Connecticut, was the matron of honor for her sister, Barbara Empringham of Gormley was the maid of honor and the bridesmaids were Mary-Ann Dowbiggin, Richmond Hill and Mrs. Anthony Mills, Clarkson.

They were very attractive in full length coats and dresses of silk worsted, cerise in color with the gowns trimmed in matching color of lace. They wore strands of pearls in their hair and carried roses and carnations in shades of pink with hints of blue cornflower.

Helen Couch of Unionville was the pretty flower girl. The bride designed and made her dress which was also in cerise silk worsted, and fashioned with puff sleeves and a long train.

Douglas R. Lent of Brampton was the groomsman. The ushers were David W. Sykes, Robert Henry, and Dwight Henderson, brother of the groom.

The reception was held in Morgan Hall, Markham. The bride's mother received in a full length mauve gown, cap sleeves and trimmed with white lace and ribbon around the neckline and down the deep pleated back to the floor. She wore a ranch mink cape, matching accessories and a corsage of pink roses.

The bride's grandmother was among the many guests, wearing a pink lace coat dress with a gardenia corsage. Also in attendance was the grandmother of the groom who wore a navy dress and a gardenia corsage.

For travelling to Lake Dalrymple, the bride chose a long sleeved kelly green dress and coat with gold accessories and a corsage of yellow roses.

Mrs. Leslie Rowe
Suffered long illness

STOUFFVILLE — Rev. Fred Cromey of St. James Presbyterian Church, conducted the service, Aug. 12 from the O'Neill Funeral Home for Mrs. Leslie Rowe who passed away in Stouffville Brierbush Hospital, Aug. 9 following a lengthy illness.

Mrs. Rowe, the former Eliza Jane Bennett, was born at West Hill, daughter of William and Martha Bennett.

Prior to coming to Stouffville, 14 years ago, Mr. and Mrs. Rowe lived on conc. 7, Markham and later on concessions 4 and 5 of the Twp. of Whitchurch.

Mrs. Rowe loved her church, attending at St. Andrew's Markham and later in Stouffville, when health permitted. When she could no longer participate, she assisted in the formation of a ladies' group who met at home. Funds received in this way were turned over to a women's organization.

She had been a patient at Brierbush since February of this year.

Surviving besides her husband is one daughter, Elizabeth (Mrs. Ewart Munshaw) of Lefroy, Ontario and thirteen grandchildren. There are three brothers, Charles, Walter and Alfred and one sister, Flossie (Mrs. H.A. Kirton) all of Claremont.

Funeral services were held at Stouffville Cemetery, August 12, 1970.

Interment was in Stouffville Cemetery.
