STOUFFVILLE SCENE What's going on

Hat Show
The fall hat show, a feature each year in the United Church Hall, will be held Tuesday evening, Sept. 15 at 8 p.m. Tickets are available from Joan Cadieux, Ruth Winstein, Bea Jennings and Marion Hodgson.

Gino Testa is building four new homes on Sunset Boulevard, west of Orchard Park School. One of these, now partially completed, has been purchased by Ross Hetherington, Main Street West.

Raise $20.10
As part of the Channel 2 telethon in aid of the Muscular Dystrophy Association, John and Cathy Pollard, children of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Pollard, Fairview Avenue, canvassed their area of town, using only a peanut butter jar and collected $20.10.

Hockey Registration
The ball season is still in full swing but, believe it or not, hockey is just around the corner. Registration for all boys, Novice through Midget will be held Sept. 19 and 26 from 9.30 to 11.30 a.m., in the Municipal Office, Civic Avenue.

Federal post
Councillor Mrs. Ethel Mole will not seek a ward position in the new Area of Whitchurch-Stouffville. Her recent appointment by Ottawa to a position with the Dept. of Health will make her unavailable for political office in 1971. She leaves with an enviable record, having headed the polls in two elections, her first in 1967 and again in 1969.

Mrs. Mary Couperthwaite of Stouffville and Mrs. Ivy Couperthwaite of Markham have returned from a trip through the States of Pennsylvania and Virginia.

The Tribune has received a letter from Mr. Theodore Neilson, better known to his Stouffville friends as 'Sunshine'. Mr. Neilson has not been enjoying good health and remains a patient in St. Joseph's Hospital, Victoria, B.C. His room number is 114-2.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Novak and baby Krista of Lombard, Illinois, were pleased to receive a visit from Mr. and Mrs. Ivan Reesor and daughter, Leanne of Markham. Mrs. Novak is the former Carole Morris of Stouffville.

The park tennis courts will not be available for ice skating this winter, councillor Tom Lonergan informed members of council, Thursday night. A special surface treatment applied to the new asphalt top must be retained for a period of one year, Mr. Lonergan said.

Mr. and Mrs. Ernie Pilkey, Mr. and Mrs. Rodney Bond and family, Mr. and Mrs. Tolar Boake and Donna, Miss Yvonne Barker, and Mr. and Mrs. Arnold Harper, Anne, and her girlfriend spent the weekend at Gooderham and attended the Kinmount Fair, Saturday.

Fashions for fall and winter at Trade Fair
Fashions for fall and winter will be featured at the Trade Fair Thursday and Friday evenings at 8 p.m., and Saturday at 2 p.m., in a show by Paul's of Stouffville. Two of the models will be Cathy Hargrave (left) and Shelley Paul. Going to all lengths to please all tastes, mini, midi and maxi fashions will be shown.

Orchard Park School Six new teachers

STOUFFVILLE — Five teachers are new and one has returned to the staff of Orchard Park Public School for the Fall term that opened Sept. 8.
No stranger to many of the students is Mr. Gary Litster, formerly of Orchard Park and more recently at Mark II in Unionville. He will be in charge of Grade 5.
Others are — Miss Elaine Clendenning and Mr. Ronald Robbins, both graduates of Toronto Teacher's College. Miss Clendenning has Grade 3 and Mr. Robbins, Grade 4.
Also in charge of a Grade 4 class is Mrs. Randall, formerly of Lake Wilcox.
Two teachers come from Aurora — Mrs. Connie Maynard (Gr. 3) and Mrs. Dianne Burland, Special Education (Primary).
Two rooms in the school, not utilized last year, have been re-opened, Principal Keith Sutherland said.
Tom Clifford, president of Cedar Beach Cottagers' Association reports a record attendance of over 300 at its annual corn roast, Aug. 29. Mr. Clifford extends appreciation on behalf of the executive to the merchants and friends at Musselman's Lake and Stouffville for their generous gifts of prizes.

Rev. George Hewitt, pastor of the Mandeville Missionary Church in Jamaica, spent a weekend recently with friends in Stouffville. Mrs. Lovina Wright and Evelyn entertained in their home during which time, Rev. Hewitt, Rev. Henry Good, Mrs. Percy Lehman and Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Hoover renewed old acquaintances and revived memories of Bible School days of 40 years ago. They are all graduates of Chicago Evangelistic Institute and hadn't been together as a group since that time.

The mini, the midi or the maxi - which will it be? A fashion show in St. Andrew's United Church Hall at Markham, Sept. 16 at 8 p.m., could provide the answer. The public, both ladies and gentlemen, are invited.

Antique Exhibition
The antique exhibition and sale, sponsored by St. Andrew's Presbyterian Church in Markham and held in the Markham arena, returns for a seventh successful year this week. Twenty-two dealers will display their wares on Friday from 11 a.m. to 10 p.m., and Saturday from 10 a.m. to 9 p.m. A hot beef dinner will also be served. The public is invited.

In spite of the weather, the annual service in First Markham Baptist Church, Aug. 30 was well attended. Jess Pike led in the singing with Clarion Baker at the organ. The message was brought by Denzel Raymer.
