Gormley man fined $200 — impaired

GORMLEY — A Gormley area man was fined $200 and an order prohibiting him from driving for 6 months was issued by Judge M.A. Charles following conviction on a charge of impaired driving registered in Richmond Hill Court, Sept. 4.

Robert Ross, Gormley Road, pleaded not guilty.

Constable David Hadden tesified he followed the accused from a point north of Ringwood on Hwy. 48 to his residence east of Don Mills Road. He said the man crossed the road from shoulder to shoulder on several occasions and travelled at speeds of between 70 and 80 miles an hour.

At the Ringwood traffic lights, P.C. Hadden said, the accused stopped for the red signal in the wrong lane.

When the accused pulled into his driveway, he said, he ran from his car, stumbling across the lawn.

Mr. Ross was apprehended and placed in the cruiser with assistance from Markham Township Constable Jim Caines, and taken to Richmond Hill for a breath test. Readings of 1.4 and 1.5 were obtained.

Ross told the court he had been extremely tired, and left work to visit his wife in hospital. From there, he said, he went to a party at Musselmans Lake, where he had 4 or 5 drinks. He said that he did not feel that the drinks had affected his driving. The party host, Gerald Bedford testified he did not feel that the accused man was impaired when he left for home.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Smith, Bethesda, Mrs. Mae Harvey, Richmond Hill, Mrs. Roy Nelson, Victoria Square, Miss Doris Whielton of Newmarket, were dinner guests of Mrs. R.J. Smith, Park Drive.

Mr. and Mrs. Keith Lapsley of Pine Orchard have a treat in store for the children attending a week-long program in Vivian McCormack Memorial Church. Every evening, beginning at 7.15 p.m., from Sept. 21 to 25, they will entertain with puppets, film strips and contests. Boys and girls, 5 to 13 years are invited.

Junior plowman

International competition

ONTARIO CTY. - Department of Agriculture and Food - On Saturday, Sept. 12, a joint Junior Plowing Match for North and South Ontario was held at the farm of Mr. Clark Little, Sunderland, R.R.5. This joint Junior Plowing Match was sponsored by the Brooklin and Port Perry Junior Farmers, and the North and South Ontario Plowmen's Associations.

Mr. Raymond Montague, Jarvis, R.R.1, was the official coach and judge for the competition. The competitors were coached on correct plow adjustment and how to start and finish their lands.

The purpose of the Junior Plowing Match is to give the Junior Plowmen an opportunity to receive instruction on plowing, and proper plow adjustments; and to encourage their participation in the senior matches.

The winners in the class for boys 15 years and under, who had plowed in competition before, were: 1st - Doug Dunkeld, Claremont; 2nd - Gregg Timbers, Sandford; 3rd - Rick Campsall, Uxbridge; 4th - Jim Tran, Claremont; 5th - Don Little, Sunderland; 6th - Keith Fraser, Uxbridge; 7th - Ken Fraser, Uxbridge.

The winner in the class for boys 15 years and under, who had not plowed before were: 1st - Brian Hoskin, Sunderland.

The winners in the class for boys 16 to 22 years inclusive, who had plowed in competition before, were: 1st - Brian DeGeer, Mount Albert; 2nd - Bill Trann, Claremont; 3rd - Ron McGuckin, Mount Albert; 4th - Bob Tran, Claremont; 5th - Barry Timbers, Sandford; 6th - John Sheridan, Uxbridge; 7th - Cindy Campsall, Uxbridge; 8th - Dale Oldham, Mount Albert; 9th - Bruce Pearce, Claremont; 10th - Ted Smith, Sunderland; 11th - Bruce Morrison, Berverton.

The winners in the class for boys 16 to 22 years inclusive, who had not plowed before, were: 1st - Alex Leask, Uxbridge; 2nd - Charles Lowery, Beaverton.

Doug Dunkeld, Claremont, 2, will represent the South Ontario Plowmen's Association, and Brian DeGeer, Mount Albert, 3, will represent the North Ontario Plowmen's Association in the Junior Inter-Branch Class at the International Plowing Match, Lindsay. Bob Tran, Claremont, 2, will represent South Ontario, and Ron McGuckin, Mount Albert, 3, will represent North Ontario in the Intermediate Inter-Branch Class at the International.

Bill Tran, Claremont, 2, and Brian DeGeer, Mount Albert, 3, will represent Ontario County in the Inter-County Class, at the International.

Variety program

MARKHAM - A variety program, with all proceeds going to 'Participation House', a residence for the Cerebral Palsied, will be held in the Markham Arena, Friday evening at 8 p.m.

The Master of Ceremonies is Bill Deegan, radio station C.F.R.B.

Featured will be such well known personalities as Joyce Sullivan, Joan West, the Markham High School orchestra and the barbershop chorus, 'The Merry Men of Markham' plus additional talent.

'Participation House' is a project to be started this fall on part of the property reserved for the proposed Markham-York Hospital, conc. 9, Markham.

Full color

For the first time this issue The Tribune is carrying two full process color advertisements. One and two colors have been available for some time but the use of full color is a first. The ads appear on pages two and seven of the first section.

Tribune circulation stands at an all-time high of more than six thousand copies sold each week. The paper recently introduced computerized typesetting into the production plant and the use of full color is another step in providing both the readers and advertisers with the best possible local newspaper.
