Late Charles Conner
Second Markham Church loses valuable member

MARKHAM TWP. — Mr. Charles Conner, R.R.1, Unionville passed away Sept. 6, in the York County Hospital, Newmarket at the age of 77 years. Mr. Conner was born at Gormley, Dec. 15, 1892, son of James Conner and Mary Ann Sheffer. He had been in declining health for several years.

In May 1915, Mr. Conner enlisted with the 19th battery of the Royal Canadian Artillery and served overseas for four years, returning home May 1919. Later that spring he took up farming on the 6th conc. of Markham Twp., and in May 1921 married Cora Wideman of Richmond Hill. They have 5 children — Eleanor (Mrs. Wm. Simpson) R.R.3, Stouffville, Doris (Mrs. Howard Burton) of R.R.2, Claremont, Neil R.R.1, Unionville, Marjorie (Mrs. Murray Johnston) of R.R.1, Moorefield, and Marion (Mrs. Paul Myers) R.R.3, Claremont. There are 16 grandchildren and 1 great grandchild. The funeral was held at Second Markham Baptist Church where he had been a member for 45 years. His pastor Rev. D. Gibson preached the sermon with Rev. Norman Rowan and Dr. W.S. Whitcombe, former pastors assisting. Mr. Conner, shortly before his death, requested that his favorite hymn "God Leads His Dear Children Along" be sung at his funeral by Mrs. Neil Conner and Mrs. Dave Ratcliff. The pall bearers were — Walter Yusko, Charles Ratcliff, Morris Eby, Clarence Powell, Fred Yake and Allan Wideman. Floral tributes banked the bier and 60 Gideon Bibles were dedicated to his memory, further attesting to the high esteem in which Mr. Conner was held. The grief stricken wife and members of the family have the sincere sympathy of the community and church in their great loss. Interment on Sept. 9, was at the Heise Hill Cemetery.

Honored on 90th birthday
More than seventy friends and relatives called at the home of Mrs. G.L. Williamson, Church Street, Markham, Sept. 9, to honor Miss Elizabeth Williamson on the occasion of her 90th birthday. Miss Williamson is a daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. John Williamson and was born on a farm on Peach's Sideroad, now occupied by Mr. Stan Watson. She attended the former Dickson's Hill one-room school and resided in Toronto for many years with her sister, the late Mrs. Chas. Robinson.

Melville United Church
Memorial Day service

By Isobel Nigh
MELVILLE — Rev. Douglas Davis will be the guest speaker at the annual Memorial and Decoration Day Service, Sunday afternoon at 2.30 p.m. Special music will be rendered by Mrs. Ray Grant and Mr. Lorne Boadway of Stouffville. A crowd estimated at 500, attended the barbecue banquet with plenty of good food for everyone. Present were former members of the community, Mr. and Mrs. Don Hunter and Mr. and Mrs. Herb Sproxtion and family. Sunday School at 10 a.m., and worship at 11.15 a.m., have resumed following the summer vacation period. There are classes for all ages. Parents are urged to accompany their children and enjoy a stimulating adult lesson under the leadership of Mr. Stan Patterson. The fall program for Brownies will begin soon. All girls aged 7 to 10 years are welcome. Further information can be obtained from Mrs. Sherwood at 640-3837. The U.C.W. meeting at the home of Mrs. Bruce Carr was well attended. The program was in charge of Mrs. C. Patterson. The hostesses were Mrs. C. Hoover and Mrs. J. Frisby. The community is pleased to see Mr. Chet Patterson home following a recent illness. A speedy recovery is wished for Mrs. Clayton Gayman. Congratulations to Gordon Lewis and Merrill Johnson, prize-winners with their horse teams at the C.N.E. University students returning to classes include — Doris Brillinger, Susan Sherwood, Jean Miller and Harold Brillinger. Anniversary services at Locust Hill United Church are Sept. 27. Regular worship at Melville will be withdrawn so that members may attend. Newlyweds, Mr. and Mrs. Ian Heggie have moved to Calgary. Several from the community called on Mr. and Mrs. W. Klees, Saturday on the occasion of their Golden Wedding.

Mr. and Mrs. Wallace James and sons of Woodbridge spent Sunday with his mother, Mrs. Nettie James, Main Street

Mrs. Reg. Gibbins, Loretta Crescent and Mrs. Charles Hoover, Hwy. 48 are spending holidays at Keswick.

Two-way stop!
CLAREMONT — A miss is as good as a mile, so the saying goes, but it does little to ease the fears of parents when they see and hear about motorists passing school buses while children are getting on and off. Such an incident occurred last week on conc. 9, Pickering, narrowly missing several pupils. The bus driver had both front and rear lights flashing, the caller said. Motorists should remember that cars and trucks MUST stop from BOTH directions when a stationary bus is loading and unloading students. The penalty for disobeying this law, if convicted, is severe.
Cpl. Gordon and Dorothy Evans, Dana and Daniel have returned to their station at Senneterre, Quebec following two weeks at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Evans, R.R.1, Claremont.
IF YOU STILL HAVE SOMETHING TO LEARN...
CHANNEL 19 FOR ENTERTAINING EDUCATION
On September 28, television in Ontario changes dramatically. Channel 19, Canada's first station fully devoted to entertaining education, begins broadcasting. For the viewer, it means a new age of learning 'with your feet up.'
Channel 19 is programmed by The Ontario Educational Communications Authority. That is, more than 200 educators, producers, writers, and technicians whose specialty is to make learning a rewarding and enjoyable experience.
Adult education on Channel 19 means a wide range of stimulating programs. For instance, 'Man in Society', 'The Creative Person', or 'The Great War.' 'Solvez la Pistre' is a 25-episode thriller in clear, simple French for those who'd like to brush up on their second language. And if French means cooking to you, you'll enjoy 'The French Chef'. Many of these programs will offer books or pamphlets.
Channel 19's broadcast area is bordered by Oshawa, Hamilton, Newmarket, and St. Catharines.
