

Headford United Church Anniversary services

By Mrs. Wm. Sandle
VICTORIA SQUARE - Rev. John Hunter of Aurora United Church will be the guest speaker at the morning anniversary service at Headford. Worship time is 11 a.m. Mr. Hunter is the president-designate of Toronto conference. In the evening, at 7:30 p.m., Rev. and Mrs. Martin Jenkinson will show pictures and tell the story of the 1970 Passion Play at Oberammergau. Service at Victoria Square has been withdrawn to allow members to attend.

Congratulations to a former resident of our community, but now of York Manor. Mr. Harry Forster will celebrate his 87th birthday, Sept. 26th. Birthday greetings to Mrs. Fraser Gee, September 24; to Mrs. Fred McRoberts, September 28; to Peter Devries, 10 years, September 28.

Wedding anniversary greetings to Mr. and Mrs. John McCague, married 22 years, September 25; to Mr. and Mrs. Dalton Rumney, Married 48 years, September 30. Friends are sorry to hear of the serious illness of a former resident of our community. Mr. Wm.

Siberry, in Riverdale Hospital, Toronto. Mr. and Mrs. Fraser Gee and Miss Muriel Mortonson have returned home after spending the past month on a trip to Vancouver. They visited with Fraser's sister, Dr. Evelyn-Gee. Muriel returned home by plane earlier in order to be on time for the re-opening of school.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Cook, London, England, spent the weekend with Mr. and Mrs. Donald Boynton and family. On Saturday evening Don and Dorothy entertained the members of Don's family in order to meet their cousins from England.

Hospital Auxiliary seeks new members

BUTTONVILLE - The Buttonville Branch of the York Central Hospital Auxiliary met, Sept. 11 at the home of Mrs. Dora Parkin, Cachet Country Club. The chairman, Mrs. Reg Allan presided. There were 16 ladies present. New members are invited to attend the October meeting on the second Friday in the month at the home of Mrs. Andrew Glenn, 16th Avenue, east of conc. 5. Coffee will be served at 10 a.m.

The guest speaker, and Mrs. Walter Craig in the chair. Buttonville W.I. held their first meeting of the season at the home of Mrs. Jack Robinson, Thornhill. Mrs. Lloyd Baker, president, was in the chair; Mrs. James Rodick was secretary; and the guest speaker was Mrs. Keith Carson (Beverly Burr). Since Mrs. Gladys McQuay returned from a vacation in western Canada late in August she has suffered from an eye ailment. Last weekend she was in Branson hospital for surgery.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Stover and Russell of Port Elgin spent the weekend with friends and relatives here.

Corn on-the-cob for P.C. chief

Robert Stanfield was just plain 'Bob' to hundreds of visitors who attended the Conservative Party picnic at Swiss Chalet Park, Greenwood, Sunday. The P.C. chief appeared to enjoy the friendly outdoor atmosphere that prevailed, particularly the taste of fresh corn on the cob. Accompanying him here is Bill Newman (Ontario South).

Mr. and Mrs. Rodick has also been in hospital recently (Humber Memorial) and we understand is making good progress.

Visitors from B.C.

Mr. Jack Rodick and his sister Mary are home again after an extended trip west to Summerland and Edmonton. They were accompanied by their sister Mrs. Morrison Sellar of Brantford and relatives from Bolton. Primarily the trip was made to attend the 50th wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. Edgar McAlister.

By Ruth Hutchings
GREEN RIVER Sunday visitors at the home of Mr. Wm. Duncan were Mr. and Mrs. O. Jenkinson of British Columbia and Mr. and Mrs. A. Trewatha of Markham. Sympathy of the community is extended to the family of the late Mrs. P. Catton.

The A.W. Millers were happy to have their daughter Velma, (Mrs. Donald Otis) of Pueblo Colorado, and son Mathew for a brief visit last weekend. Mrs. Miller, who had a severe fall late in June is still not recovered from her injuries.

Mrs. McIntyre of Toronto visited with her sister and family - Mr. and Mrs. George Brandwood.

Mrs. S.J. English's grandson, William Bartram, has been installed as Christian Education Director at St. George's United Church, Toronto.

Mr. and Mrs. A. Hagerman of Maple Grove visited with relatives here.

Pleased to hear that Mrs. L. LeVett is able to be home from hospital and is feeling much better. The Ladies Aid met at the home of Mrs. Herbert in Whitevale, Sept. 16.

Accused to learn trade

STOUFFVILLE - A Stouffville youth, convicted 2 weeks ago on charges of theft and break and enter was placed in the House of Concord for three years by Judge M.A. Charles, Sept. 18, in Richmond Hill Court.

It was revealed that Norman Stevenson was on probation following conviction on a previous theft charge in March when the offences took place.

Judge Charles warned Stevenson that if he should leave the house during the period, he would face a reformatory term.
