

Parade grant - $1,000

MARKHAM - Plans are now under way for a mammoth Santa Claus Parade for the Town of Markham, sponsored by the Chamber of Commerce, to be held Dec. 5. Spokesmen for the organization attended the town council meeting Monday night to outline their proposals. Eleven bands have been contracted for the occasion, with exhibits expected to surpass the 63 entered last year. The parade was termed 'equal to Eaton's in Toronto' and will have extensive television coverage. Council passed a resolution granting the sum of $1,000 to help defray expenses.

Present attendance award

By Isobel Nigh MELVILLE - Oct. 18 was Rally Sunday at Melville United Church. Mrs. Wm. Sherwood presented attendance pins to Leslie Brown, Jody Brown and Jeff. Brown. Jim Brown received his 7th year bar and Steven Brown, his 8th year bar. The U.C.W. catered to 51 members of the Markham Unionville Lions Club, Oct. 15. Ladies are reminded of the invitation to Lemonville this Thursday evening and the bee, Friday night in the church basement to pack plowmen's lunches for Saturday's East York Branch Match. Each lady is asked to bring a dozen tarts. Sunday service was well attended with Mr. and Mrs. Don Clements of Evangelical Union of South America, guest speakers. They were accompanied by their three children. Mr. and Mrs. Clements were stationed in Bolivia for 5 years and at the end of their current furlough, plan to return.

Couples enjoy one month vacation

By Vera Moyer DICKSON'S HILL - Mr. and Mrs. Maurice Eby and Mr. and Mrs. Elmore Barkey left Sept. 12 on a month's vacation. Mr. and Mrs. Eby attended the 'Home for the Aged' convention as delegates. Mr. and Mrs. Barkey visited Dorian Bible Camp. Following their stay at the Lakehead, they called on friends in Calgary. Guests with the Wm. Grove family recently were Pat and John Leijon and baby Kathy from California. Mr. Langdon from Windsor spent a week visiting with Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd McVicker and family. Mr. and Mrs. Stephen Clark from Woodstock commenced their honeymoon following their marriage Oct. 10, visiting his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Maurice Eby and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Lester Eby Stouffville, grandmother Clark and other relatives in the area. Wednesday evening, Miss Eleanor Moyer was the guest speaker at the prayer service. Miss Moyer arrived home on Wednesday for a visit with her family. Sunday evening she was the guest speaker at the Markham Missionary Church W.M.S. Thank Offering Service. Miss Evelyn Hart from Preston and a graduate from Emmanuel Bible College, Kitchener, spoke briefly in the morning worship. Miss Hart is leaving shortly for missionary service in Quito, Ecuador. Guests with the Warren Moyer family on Sunday were Warren's parents and family, Mrs. Grant Stoss from Kitchener, and Miss Evelyn Hart, Preston.

Respected lady

By Mrs. Wm. Sandle VICTORIA SQUARE - The many friends of Mrs. John Empringham will be sorry to learn of her passing on Friday at York Central Hospital, Richmond Hill. Funeral services were conducted Monday afternoon. Sympathy is extended to her husband, son, Earl, daughter, Norma (Mrs. Ray Wilson), and four grandchildren.

Oct. 25 is the Anniversary services of the Victoria Square United Church. At 11 a.m. the guest speaker will be Rev. Gordon Winch, who was formerly the "Padre to the Pubs" and now Director of the Distress Centre. At 7:30 p.m. the choir of St. Matthew's United Church, Richmond Hill will present a musical evening.

The annual turkey supper will be held in the Community Hall Nov. 11 from 5 to 8 p.m.

Birthday greetings to Miss Judy Hart, Oct. 23; Lindsay Brumwell, seven years, Oct. 27; Robert Gee, two years, Oct. 27; Mark Rumney, thirteen years, Oct. 28; Douglas Macdonald, Oct. 28; John Houck, twelve years, Oct. 28.

The October meeting of the Women's Institute was held at the home of Mrs. Harry Barber. The theme was, "Historical Research". Guest speakers, Mr. and Mrs. Ted. Brown of Uxbridge, gave an interesting talk on antique chairs, and a demonstration on caning furniture.

The October meeting of the U.C.W. was held at the home of Mrs. Harry Barber. Worship service was in charge of Mrs. Donald Boyd, assisted by Mrs. Harry Barber and Mrs. Mary Buchanan. Guest speaker, Mrs. Desmond Meed, who has spent the past five years in Ethiopia, was dressed in the Ethiopian costume. Mrs. Meed told of her work there, illustrated with colored slides.

There were 18 tables of euchre players at the Community Hall Friday evening. Prize winners were: Ladies: (1) Mrs. Wes. Clark; (2) Mrs. Patton, and (3) Mrs. Jack Warwick. Men: (1) Robt. Ball; (2) George Foster; (3) Ed. Fraser. Lucky draws for apples were: Mrs. George Tooley, Mrs. Ethel Hardwick, Mrs. Alan Chadwick and Mrs. Margaret Chadwick. Another euchre party will be held in the Community Hall Oct. 30 at 8 p.m.

A speedy recovery is wished for Mrs. Robert Butterworth in an auto accident last week and now in York-Finch Hospital. The many friends of Mr. Harvey Collard are pleased to see that he is able to be out once again following recent surgery in the York Central Hospital.

Mr. and Mrs. Charlie Croxford and Donald, Mr. and Mrs. Michael McQueen, Laurie Macdonald had Sunday dinner with Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Steekley, the occasion in honor of Donald Croxford's third birthday.

Mrs. Jean Tribbling a member of the Melody Makers of Markham, went by chartered bus to Providence, Rhode Island last week to compete in the International Barbershop Competition held there.

Break-in
WHITCHURCH TWP. - Two men have been arrested following a break-in at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Douglas Streit, Conc. 6. Property taken from the home between October 6 and 11 included a color television, a portable radio and a bear skin rug. Mr. Streit had shot himself. All items have been recovered. Charged, Oct. 17, with break, enter and theft are 22 year old Reinhard Heinz Scheithauer, of Don Mills and Michael Roderick Hynes, 20, of Scarborough. A third man has been summonsed on a charge of possession of stolen goods. The pair were apprehended by police in Mississauga.
