

Sports

Tribune

Claremont pee wee finalists

Honored at ball banquet

CLAREMONT - It may not be fastball weather, but Claremont's Pee wee team, Ontario finalists, were the toast of the town, Nov. 13.

At a banquet in their honor, the boys were presented with jackets, courtesy, Claremont Lions Club, plus individual trophies.

In return, the lads presented their coach, Earle Pilkey and manager, Bill Towner with engraved plaques.

The guest speaker was Fred Etcher, one-time star of the Whitby Dunlops.

Members of the Claremont club included - Brad Staley, Larry Elson, Billy Carruthers, Paul Towner, Larry Pilkey, Danny Ellicott, Dougie Rowe, Brian Towner, Rodney Smith, Gordie Lehman and David McDonald.

Editor's mail

Dear Sir: Undoubtedly, I should be writing this letter to the clerk or reeve of Stouffville Council.

However, for reasons that will be obvious, I cannot sign it. And I doubt that council would pay much attention to unsigned correspondence. I am the parent of a boy who played last summer on Stouffville's Pee wee ball team.

You may think I'm prejudiced, and likely I am. However, in my opinion, these were the finest bunch of boys I have ever seen in local competition. Not only were they good enough to advance to the Ontario Finals, but they showed the kind of good sportsmanship on and off the field that drew compliments even from rival fans.

The management, in particular their coach, Mr. Watson, worked hard with these lads and I was proud to have my boy playing under this kind of guidance and leadership. It was disappointing then, that village council couldn't see fit to recognize the team's effort through

She's No. One in the chorus line

Orchard Park Public School boast the top cheerleader team in Stouffville, edging out St. Mark's and Summitview in competition, Nov. 19. The group captain is 11 year old Debbie Foley, Fairview Avenue.

-Peter Harris.

Men's Bowling Lg.

STOUFFVILLE - Phil Whybrev rolled a 296 to top the 7 o'clock division of the Monday Night Men's Bowling League. Others over 220 follow: J. Lankveld, 240; G. Donkers, 263; F. Ballinger, 259; J. Ballinger, 227; V. Blake, 285; C. Lynde, 232; H. Blum, 225; B. Walker, 249; B. Jesson, 248; D. Dennis, 247; B. Irving, 271; K. Barton, 256; J. Spang, 237;

Fine start for next season

Well known on local fairways, Jimmy Johnstone (right) and his son, Ian, now professionals at the Don Mills Golf Centre south of Browns Corners on Don Mills Road, recently gave this matched set of 12 'Ben Hogan' golf clubs to a Don Mills man, Mr. D. Yewman, of Cassandra Boulevard, in the last of a series of draws held by the centre.

Allan Carruthers

Blanks rivals third time

STOUFFVILLE - Co-op blasted Civitan Club 7-2 in Pee wee action, Nov. 18. The winners marksmen were Eric Henneberg (3), Stephen Reeks (2) with singles to Mark Davis and Glen Gibson. Playmakers points were earned by Mark Davis (2), Gary Mann (2), Stephen Reeks, Glen Gibson, and Alan Lewis. Don McIntee and Greg Roy banded in the Civitan goals and Kent Wideman received one assist.

Brian Pearce used his whitewash brush as he led D. & A. Construction to 2-0 win over Hetherington Electric. Corrie Almack and Perry Huisman were the goalscorers for the winners.

Paul Marshman also played Mr. Zero to lead Apache Freight Lines to a 4-0 blanking of Mayflower Farms. Danny Wagg paced the winners with three goals. Wally Schell picked up one goal and one assist while Ron Assinck earned one assist.

Allan Carruthers recorded the third shutout of the night as he was the difference in Pine Hill

Thursday Ladies

STOUFFVILLE - Nancy Armstrong counted a high triple of 645 with single games of 241 and 259 in the Thursday Afternoon Ladies Bowling League. Scoring 200 and over were Lois Bartley, 202; Joan Boyd, 213; Jean Dart, 206-227; Jean Foley, 211; Sadie Greenshields, 221-213; Ev McKay, 237; Bernice Nelson, 200; Elva Newmarch, 226; Toots Taylor, 202 and June Ward, 297.

Paul Barry

Three-goal marksman

STOUFFVILLE - Stouffville Kinsmen skated to a well-earned 7-1 victory over Schell Lumber in Mite league play, Nov. 23. Scoring for the Kinsmen were Robert Gierkink (3), Garry Carr (2) and singles to Tommy Herold, and Peter Campbell. Mike Rehill from Andrew Redshaw was the Schell scoring play.

Wells were the marksmen for Aida. Consolidated Sand & Gravel defeated Lehman Shoes 5-1 on David Mackenzie's three goals and the pair fired by Brian Ilson. Randy Steckley botched the lone goal for Lehman's.

Raymer Interiors took a 3-1 decision from Becker's Milk in a close game. David Kerrigan had a goal and an assist for Raymer's while Chris Burke and Allen Thorne picked up single goals. Larry Simpson got the goal for Becker's.

Keith Acton
Three-goal spree

STOUFFVILLE - Speedy forward Keith Acton has collected his second 3-goal hat trick within a week.

He performed the feat, Friday at Brooklin as the Pee wee squad chalked up a 5-1 victory. One of his goals was an unassisted effort. Bill Meakes and Doug Feasby picked up points on the other two.

Meakes and Feasby also scored a goal each on their own. Ken Smith gained an assist on Stouffville's fourth tally.

This Thursday (tonight), Stouffville hosts Brooklin. Game time is 7 p.m.

Feasby sparks Peeweers

STOUFFVILLE - When it comes to good hockey and clean hockey, the Stouffville Peeweers are No. 1.

In a thrill-packed game, Thursday, that saw only one penalty served, the I.G.A., boys edged Port Perry 4-3. It was a playoff-type contest.

Doug Feasby, headed for another fine season, led the goal-getters with two. Eddie Leger and Howie Jones fired one apiece. Ed Olson, Tim Ashbridge, and John Scott hit the target for the visitors.

Three of Stouffville's four tallies came in the second period.

Games of the week

STOUFFVILLE - The following hockey games are scheduled for the Stouffville Arena this week:

Thursday, Nov. 26 Brooklin Peeweers vs. Stouffville - Time - 7 p.m. Port Perry Bantams vs. Stouffville - Time 8.15 p.m. Newcastle Midgets vs. Stouffville - Time - 9.30 p.m.

Friday, Nov. 27 West-Rouge Novice vs. Stouffville - Time 8 p.m. Tuesday, Dec. 1 Stouffville 'Clippers' vs. Wellington - Time 8.15 p.m. Wednesday, Dec. 2 Newcastle Juveniles vs. Stouffville - Time - 9 p.m.

Legion Ladies

STOUFFVILLE - Barbara Thomas rolled a 220 single and Joan Harper, a 590 triple to top the Legion Ladies Bowling League, Nov. 17.

Others topping the 200 were - Marg Gutkind, 207; Ev McKay, 215; Joan Harper, 219-206; Opal Lehman, 207; Ruth Winterstein, 212; Dora Daniels, 202; Barbara Thomas, 220; Sadie Greenshield, 208.

Port Perry trims Juveniles 6-2

Safer on bench

MARKHAM - The Dixie management has taken a trick from Leaf coach, Johnny McLellan's bag. When the going gets rough, he switches goaltenders.

They did it Friday, after Markham Jr.s, built up a 3-1 lead in the first period. But it didn't change anything. Markham went on to win, 7-4.

Holder holds fort

STOUFFVILLE - Performing like the Bantam edition of professional Jacques Plante, Jackie Holder turned aside everything West Rouge could throw at him, Thursday to chalk up a well-earned shutout.

Peter Lambert started in the Dixie cove and watched three pucks slip past him: Pat Devlin took over and was beaten four times. Tim Appleford potted a pair for the 'Seal-a-Wax' squad. Singles were scored by Dave McCullough, Larry Goodenough, Bob D'Alvise, Tom Newman and Steve Langdon.

This Friday, Markham hosts Aurora. Game time is 8.30 p.m.

693 triple

STOUFFVILLE - Judy Armstrong rolled a 693 triple, including singles of 248, 227 and 218 Nov. 19 in the 7 O'Clock Thursday Ladies Bowling League. Others over 200 were: Barb Melhuish, 229; Doris Redquest 228; Winnie Elson, 225; Muriel Illingworth, 215; Doris Prentice, 210; Linda Blacktop, 203 and Flora Forfar, 202.

Floodlit courts

STOUFFVILLE - The lighting of the memorial park tennis courts, a subject of discussion for years, will become a reality next month. Councillor Ian Chapman, a member of the Park Board, said all fixtures were now available and installation by the P.U.C., would begin soon.

The cost, estimated at $2,500, will be paid from the lot fee account.

WINTER

BOOTS

READY to WEAR
PRICED RIGHT TOO!!

Come See!
Come Save!

WE HAVE BOOTS FOR EVERY MEMBER OF THE FAMILY!!

LEHMAN'S

SHOES

9 Main West - STOUFFVILLE - 640-3753
OPEN THURS. & FRI. UNTIL 9 P.M.

ADULT SKATING, SAT. NOV. 28 - 8.30 p.m.

AT THE STOUFFVILLE ARENA

FUTURE DATES
JANUARY 23
FEBRUARY 27
MARCH 27