Mr. and Mrs. Albert Hawkins, Gormley, R.R. 1, celebrated their fiftieth wedding anniversary, Nov. 25, 1970. — Jas. Thomas.

Norman, not Harry
Last week, The Tribune referred to Harry Casimiri as the party who received a suspended sentence in case involving a charge following a police raid two years ago on the Mansion House Hotel. The accused was not Harry, but rather his father, Norman.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Hawkins A memorable day

GORMLEY - Nowhere can one find a warmer welcome than at a farm home in the country.
To this atmosphere add a golden wedding anniversary occasion and the spirit of friendship is everywhere.
It was noticeably evident, Wednesday, Nov. 25 as Mr. and Mrs. Albert Hawkins welcomed a steady stream of visitors at their residence, conc. 3, Whitchurch.
Cards, telegrams and beautiful bouquets of flowers decorated the living room where neighbors and family relatives chatted over a cup of tea, renewing old acquaintances and making new ones.
Mr. Hawkins was born at Highland Creek, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Nelson Hawkins. Mrs. Hawkins, the former Minnie Raymer, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Raymer. They resided on the present Tapscott Bros. farm, Hwy. 48, south of Markham Town. She attended No. 14 public school and Markham High.
The couple were married, Nov. 25, 1920 at the bride's home. Rev. Eltherington, then the pastor of Mt. Joy Brethren-in-Christ Church, conducted the ceremony.
Their honeymoon trip, by Grey Dori, was, according to Mrs. Hawkins 'not too far'. But she attaches no blame for this on the car. The fact is, the Grey Dori was looked on as quite a sturdy automobile, good for many more miles than a jaunt around the block.
The farm, near Gormley, has been their home for the past 21 years. Two sons, John and Ray reside in separate houses on the same property with their families. Carolyn, Richard, Susan and Nelson; Sharon, Debbie Karen and Lynda.
Music has always been a first love of Mrs. Hawkins and she comes by the talent honestly. Her father, better known as 'singer' Dan Raymer was a prominent leader of the church choir and later, Minnie played the organ at Gormley where she and her husband hold membership. She also belongs to the community sewing circle.
A beautiful 3-tiered anniversary cake was made by their daughters-in-law. Their grandchildren presented them with a bouquet of yellow roses. A second floral gift was received from Mrs. Hawkins' only living aunt, Mrs. Franklin Bowman, Shorthills, New Jersey.
Telegrams came from Prime Minister Pierre Elliott Trudeau, Premier John Roberts, Robert Stanfield, Donald Deacon and Toronto Mayor Wm. Dennison.
Pouring tea during the afternoon and evening were - Mrs. H. G. Mingay, Mrs. Allan Raymer, Mrs. Milton Cole, Mrs. Cliff Burkholder and Mrs. Deb. Baker. Serving the guests were - Miss Bonnie Harvey, Mrs. Daniel Koch, Mrs. Jean Walker, Mrs. John Hawkins, Mrs. Marie Hawkins, Carolyn, Sharon, Susan and Debra.
The Tribune is pleased to add its congratulations to a wonderful couple on a wonderful day.
Little Freddie was watching TV in the playroom when he was told to go downstairs and entertain his sister's boyfriend while she was getting dressed.
The youngster faced the suitor and said, "Why do you come to see my sister all the time? Don't you have one of your own?"

Family Life Centre
