STOUFFVILLE SCENE

What's going on

Christmas Cantata

A Christmas Cantata, 'Night of Miracles' will be presented by the choir of the Stouffville Missionary Church, Sunday, Dec. 20 at 7 p.m. The director is Mr. Bruce Gallamore.

Tribune foreman, Bert Jackson was able to be home from hospital on the weekend, returning again on Tuesday for further treatment.

Mr. and Mrs. Vince Wagg and Dorothy, Lloyd Avenue, entertained the family to a pre-Christmas dinner and tea, including Mr. and Mrs. Ross Hill, Fay, Alene, Dorothy, Joyce and friend of Saintfield; Mr. and Mrs. Harold Drope, Brighton; Mr. and Mrs. A. Assinck, Frank, Walter, Andy and Pauline, Markham; Mr. and Mrs. Harold Caulfield and Douglas, Oakville; Mr. and Mrs. Michael Morgan, Willowdale and Mr. and Mrs. Fred Woodland and James of Uxbridge.

Win applause

Miss Lily Bailey, 82 a resident of Parkview Home in Stouffville and an accomplished violinist, won the applause of the audience attending the Museum Board variety concert in Whitechurch Highlands School, Friday. Miss Bailey is a one-time member of the Hamilton Symphony Orchestra.

Bottle drive

A collection drive for returnable bottles will be conducted in Stouffville this Saturday, Dec. 12. Residents are asked to leave them out where they can be conveniently picked up. Proceeds will go to the Stouffville Minor Hockey Association.

First licence

Motor vehicle licence plates for 1971 went on sale, Dec. 1 at the R.H. Murphy Office, Main Street East. Who was the first customer? Who else but John Pugh, Stouffville, R.R. 4. It's getting to be a habit.

Christmas party

The Alumni Association, Royal Conservatory of Music (Markham Twp. Chapter) are entertaining friends at their Christmas party: Friday evening, Dec. 11 at the home of Mrs. Mildred Temple, Unionville. Eligible new members are welcome.

Mr. Don Lehman, Boyer Street, a 'distinguished' participant in the Kinsmen-sponsored Santa Claus Parade for several years, was forced to miss the procession, Saturday. He suffered a broken bone in his foot in a recent accident.

Pre-Christmas children's show

This Saturday, Dec. 12, the Stouffville Players will present the pre-Christmas pantomime, 'Snow White and the Seven Dwarfs' in the auditorium of the high school. Performances are at 2 and 7:30 p.m. Every child should see it.

A new house is under construction on Market Street, the future home of Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Raymer of Raymer Interiors, Main Street.

Elected president

Mr. John E. Peckitt Sr., Stouffville, R.R. 2, has been elected president of the Ontario Chapter, International Graphoanalysis Society for 1971. The annual meeting was held in the King Edward Hotel Graphology is the study of hand-writing to establish one's character and aptitude.

Doctor David Ouchterlony, Principal of the Royal Conservatory of Music of Toronto, was the guest speaker at the second annual recital given by students of member teachers of the Alumni Association of the R.C.M.T., Markham Township Chapter, held recently at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Henry J. Sissons, Markham, in recognition of 'Canada Music Week'.

Receives gold cord award

Fifteen year old Heather Conolly, R.R. 4, Stouffville, was honored, Thursday, at a ceremony in the Stouffville United Church. She was presented with her Girl Guide Gold Cord Award by Commissioner Mrs. Joan Davidson. Heather is a Grade 10 student of Stouffville Dist. Secondary School. —Peter Harris

Late Floyd Fairles

Lifelong resident

STOUFFVILLE Friends of Stouffville and community were saddened, Thursday, when they learned of the sudden passing of Mr. Floyd Fairles, formerly of Bloomington and later, Lloyd Avenue, Stouffville. Mr. Fairles was 76.

Born at Bloomington, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert N. Fairles, he spent his entire life in the immediate area.

In 1918, he married Nelda Martin who survives along with two daughters, Mrs. Betty Rutledge, Kingston, Mrs. Norma Brillinger, Stouffville and eight grandchildren.

One son Leland, is deceased. There are two brothers, Watson of Stouffville, Eldon of Gorrie and two sisters, Mrs. Della Jordan, Carbondale, Illinois and Mrs. Rita Hassard, Stouffville.

A member of the Stouffville United Church, service was conducted Saturday from the O'Neill Funeral Home by Rev. Jas. Carder, assisted by Rev. Douglas Davis, with interment, Stouffville Cemetery. The pallbearers were Bob Hassard, Norman Fairles, Garnet Smalley, Nelson Oliver, Howard St. John and Grant Drewery.

Mrs. Fred Pugh, Tenth Line North, has returned from a week's visit with her daughter, Jean, (Mrs. John Colley), Lockport, New York.

The average man will never admit it.

Men only Rutherford's 'House of Fashion' is holding a 'Men's only Night' at their ladies' wear shop in the Village Mall, Main Street. The occasion is Tuesday evening, Dec. 15 from 6 to 9 p.m. All purchases by the men for their wives or lady friends will be gift-wrapped at the customer's request. And just to make the men feel right at home, coffee will be served.

The Albert Street Home of Mr. and Mrs. Bill Sanders, has been sold to Mr. and Mrs. Douglas McCammon of Willowdale. Mr. McCammon teaches school in Richmond Hill. The many friends of Bill and Edith wish them luck as they take up residence near Minden. The sale was negotiated by Bob Dart of Thos. N. Shea Ltd.

Mrs. Wm. Grove

Dies following long illness

DICKSON'S HILL - Rev. Donald Pugh conducted the service, Nov. 25 from the Dixon Funeral Home, Markham, for Mrs. William Grove who passed away, Nov. 22, following a lengthy illness.

How to take the measure of a Good Brandy

(Traditional measure for a snifter—hold it horizontally and fill to rim.)

*You can also measure Paarl Five Star Brandy by its 300 year old tradition, the respect it has won amongst connoisseurs in more than 30 countries. Above all, measure this fine Imported Brandy by its superb bouquet, the enjoyment it gives in a snifter, "on the rocks" in a cocktail or as a refresher with ice and soda. By any criterion Paarl Five Star Brandy measures up.
