STOUFFVILLE SCENE What's going on

Children's Theatre

Two stories loved by all children will be shown again, by request, at the Children's Theatre, Latchman Hall, Saturday. Walt Disney's "Jungle Book" and "The Boy Who Stole the Elephant" are the special attractions. The program commences 2:30 p.m. Admission is 50 cents for children; $1, adults.

Piano Recital

An informal piano recital, presented by 34 students of Miss Anne Lehman, A.T.C.M., was enjoyed by parents and friends in Latchman Hall, Stouffville, Dec. 27. The piano used for the occasion, was provided by Music Mania '72.

Colin Wilson Pattenden

On Dec. 29, Colin Wilson Pattenden, long-time Gormley area farmer, and a resident of Aurora since his retirement eight years ago, passed away at the age of 83. Born the son of James and Sarah (Hiltz) Pattenden of Gormley, he farmed in the community most of his life. Surviving, besides his wife, the former Zella Durward, are four daughters, Ruth (Mrs. V. Fines), Laura (Mrs. F. Jones), Minnie, Mabel (Mrs. P. Ineson) and four sons, Walter, Ivan, Wilmot and Fred, also 21 great grandchildren and one great, great grandchild. A brother Roy lives in Toronto. Two brothers, George and William are deceased. Service was held from the Thompson Funeral Home, Aurora, Dec. 31, with interment, Aurora Cemetery.

Residents of the Ringwood community extend sympathy to Mrs. Bruce Taylor, in the passing of her mother, Mrs. L. Harper Orilla.

Welcomed to Town

Mrs. Charlotte Simonds, Stouffville's official greeter for Welcome Wagon, has called on the following newcomers to town recently — Mr. and Mrs. R. Chapman of Scarborough to 101 Park Drive North; Mr. and Mrs. Larry Collins of Markham to 102 Manitoba Street; Mr. and Mrs. V. Waldner of Vandorf to 579 Rupert Avenue; Mrs. Ara Cooper of Markham to 55 Church Street; Mr. and Mrs. L. T. Wallace of Toronto to 60 Albert Street North and Dr. and Mrs. William Zeck of Owen Sound to 251 Rupert Avenue.

Beta Sigma Phi

The "Happy New Year" atmosphere was carried into the first Beta Sigma Phi meeting of 1973, held at the home of Mrs. Pat Byer, Jan. 2. Mrs. Marilyn Garlick, Mrs. Jackie Gorrell and Mrs. Daisy Taylor conducted a 1972 review of international and local happenings in politics, science, sports and entertainment.

First Newsletter

Fulfilling a pre-election promise, Ward 4 councillor, Cathy Joyce has distributed the first of a series of newsletters to area residents. In it, she sets aside the last Thursday evening in each month for the electorate to meet her at her home (620 Rupert Avenue), to discuss problems that should be brought to the attention of council. She asks only that persons wishing to take advantage of this facility, call her first at 640-4504.

Mr. and Mrs. Allan Nesbitt of Markham, and Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Davis, Bethesda, enjoyed New Year's Day with Mrs. Everton Smith, Elm Road, Stouffville.

Horticultural Meeting

The Stouffville Horticultural Society will meet Monday, Jan. 15, at 8 p.m. in the lower auditorium of St. James Presbyterian Church. Special music will be provided by Judy and Jim Brillinger. The program will also include helpful gardening information and a series of prize-winning slides from the Ontario Horticultural Society.

Art Display

The art display in the children's section of the Whitechurch-Stouffville Public Library, is the work of students at Ballantrae Public School.

Minor Hockey Week

Minor Hockey Week at the Stouffville Arena, extends from Jan. 22 through Jan. 27. In addition to action on the ice, there will be door prizes every evening and Saturday morning, with a grand prize, two tickets to an N.H.L. game. Support the Stouffville Minor Hockey Association in their very worthwhile program.

Team Send-off

Stouffville's OMHA Bantam 'A' team will sport new uniforms Thursday (tonight) at 8 p.m., when they host Bay Ridges. The club leaves Friday, for Switzerland. Fans are urged to come out and give the lads an enthusiastic "send-off", prior to their overseas departure. Game time again — 8 p.m.

Stouffville Home in Prominent Display

The home of Mr. and Mrs. Keith Malcolm and family, 33 Park Drive North, received unexpected prominence during the Christmas holidays when a full-color picture of the front of the residence appeared in Britain's TV Times (weekly TV magazine for the BBC) and TV Talk, a similar publication for the independent television. The picture was used in a display ad for Air Canada with a typical family on the front porch ready to welcome visitors from Britain. The readership audience of the two magazines would number in the millions.

Mr. and Mrs. H. R. Button, O'Brien Avenue, have left by motor for Florida where they will enjoy the sunny climate for several months.

Stirring Film

A full-length family film, entitled "For Pete's Sake", produced by the Billy Graham Association, will be shown Sunday, Jan. 21 at 7 p.m., in the Stouffville Missionary Church. The congregation has extended an open invitation to all families in the community to attend. There is no admission charge.

Meet the People

The electorate of Whitechurch-Stouffville is reminded that Mayor Gordon Ratcliff is in his office every Friday afternoon from 1 to 3 p.m. He is anxious that people with problems come in and see him, or contact him by telephone at 640-1900 or (Newmarket) 895-2423. The location is the Municipal Building, Civic Avenue.

To Florida

Keith Leidtke, Manitoba Street, spent a portion of the Christmas-New Year holiday period in Florida.

Lady Wanted

The Tribune is anxious to obtain the services of a lady in Stouffville, to take charge of the newspaper's Page 6 "locals and personals". Typing is helpful but not absolutely necessary. Interested persons should contact the Editor, Jim Thomas at 640-2100.

Reside in Toronto

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas McFadden, following their marriage in the Stouffville United Church. The bride is the former Elaine Anne Smith, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ross Smith, Lloyd Avenue, Stouffville. The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Rae McFadden, Baker Avenue, Stouffville. Rev. Allan Borland officiated. Mrs. Jane Chisholm of Toronto served as bridesmaid; John McFadden, Snow Lake, Manitoba, the best man; Cathy McKay, the flower girl, and Wally McKay, the ring bearer. The honeymoon was spent on a camping trip into the Algonquin Park region. The happy couple are now residing in Toronto.

Double-trouble for driver

STOUFFVILLE — A motorist ran into double-trouble, Friday, when his car caught fire while parked on Market Street, south of Main. In an attempt to extinguish the blaze, he grabbed a plastic garbage bag. This didn't work, and the brigade was called. Un- thinking, the driver then tossed the empty container onto another pile of refuse, starting a blaze there. Firemen responded a second time.

A 'Party' of Sorts

Rumors that a "drinking party" preceded a Grade 8 skating party in the Stouffville Arena, prior to the Christmas vacation break, have been confirmed by a spokesman at the High School. It was revealed that one pupil obtained a quantity of alcohol from home during the noon-hour lunch period, then shared it with several friends.
