STOUFFVILLE SCENE

What's going on

Music Mania

Rehearsals in full swing

STOUFFVILLE — Reports in the area of sedate mothers bursting into song and dancing with gay abandon around the dining room table can mean only one thing. 'Music Mania' rehearsals are in full swing.

At the initial meeting held last week there was tremendous response from local men and women anxious to perform in the annual show or help with the production.

This year it will be staged on April 27 and 28.

There is still time to join the cast and production crew. The number to call is 640-2702.

Children's Theatre

The film 'Tom Thumb' is the attraction this Saturday at the Children's Theatre, Latcham Hall, Stouffville. The program, to include several cartoons, begins at 2:30 p.m., with doors open at two.

Orville George Shea

On Friday, Jan. 12, at his residence, 193 Old Yonge Street, Toronto, Orville George Shea, father of Edward Thomas and Robert Shea, passed away suddenly. Surviving also are his wife, the former Ida Noble, a sister, Mrs. Ruby Thurlow, Arizona, and a brother Sidney of Lindsay. Service was held from St. Paul's Anglican Church, Bloor Street East, Toronto, Monday at 1 p.m., with interment, St. John's, York Mills Churchyard.

Visits daughter

Mrs. Helen DeWitt, Church Street, South, enjoyed a 3-week visit with her daughter and family in Tara Hill, Wexford County, Eire. She feels the problems in Southern Ireland, particularly related to trouble between the Catholics and Protestants, has been exaggerated by the North American news media. "There is every evidence of neighborliness and goodwill between southern Protestants and Roman Catholics in their social and business life," she said. She said the people themselves look on the trouble as nothing more than economic and political unrest, and are concerned that it should be blown out of all proportions.

First euchre

The Ringwood Ladies Club held their first euchre of 1973 at the home of Fleagr Wood in Stouffville, Jan. 8. Prize-winners were: Ruth Paisley, 1st; Mae Ledlie, 2nd; Anna Fockler, 3rd and Dorothy Mehafey, Oscar.
