Slapshots

By JACK WATSON
This is Minor Hockey Week, and if you have any doubts about the impact it has on the local minor hockey scene, drop down to the arena tonight or tomorrow night. The fan turnout has been great. All the slogans are used on this week: "Don't send your boy to the rink, take him", "If you don't play a sport be a good one", but the one that has the most real meaning for me and many parents has not been used. "Even an egg goes bad, just sitting around". Our Juveniles have compiled a spectacular scoring record of late. In the past four games, they have counted 37 goals, while allowing only four. It has been an amazing accomplishment by the Juvenile Management "Ike" Hodgson, Bud Lehman, Paul Stover and Dave Slack. To have seen a group of boys mature to a team of young men with determination over a brief winter, illustrates the real meaning of our Minor Hockey Program.

Bars the door

STOUFFVILLE — Allan Fockler was 'Mr. Zero' in the nets as he led Lehman Shoes to a 4-0 win over Becker's Milk in Mite action, Jan. 20. Ron Boake paced the shoemen with two goals and an assist. Keith Wideman fired the other two tallies.

Schell Lumber and Raymer Interiors fought to a 3-3 tie in a well played contest. Glen Lewis scored twice for Schell's with Peter Sinclair notching one. Dale Leger potted a pair for Raymer's with John Tait getting the opener.

Stephen Nicholson rammed in the winner on an unassisted play as Aida's Cleaners edged Stouffville Kinsmen 2-1. Tim Yoemans opened the scoring on a pass from Don Wagg. David Sibbick notched the lone Kinsmen counter.

Kevin Bartley scored four goals to lead Country Ready-Mix to a 6-3 win over Consolidated Sand and Gravel. Craig Corner and Mark Nevins each scored once. Jan King and Mark Nevins each picked up one assist. Blair Housser scored twice for the Consolidated crew. Barry Smith fired one.

Stymies Ajax sharpshooters

STOUFFVILLE — "Play off" hockey does not describe the game played in Stouffville, Thursday night. A demonstration of pride and determination is a more apt description of the contest that saw Stouffville's Beckers Milk Midgets edge visiting Ajax, 4-3. The winning goal came at 17:14 of the third period, when Nick Fiore took a pass from Daryl Wright and used the Ajax defence as a "screen" to put his backhand shot between the pipes. Jack Holder, in goal for Stouffville, turned away seventeen Ajax shots in the third period and earned a well deserved first star.

Dave Graham put the visitors out in front with a goal at 3:15 of the first period. This was all the scoring of that period, and the goal was set up by Jim Wells, Ajax's best on the ice.

At 5:30 of the second, "hustling" Mike Wightman shoved in a pass from Bob Housser to tie the game, but Ajax came back at 7:58 to grab the lead.

In the third, "Mr. Magic", Kevin Barrick faked the goalie twice to tie the game and then get the go-ahead goal. Both counters were set up by Mike Wightman. Jim Wells tied the game up again with a solo effort.

Ajax pressed hard for the go-ahead goal, but were denied by Holder. Then with both teams shorthanded, Wright cleverly worked his way behind the Ajax defenders to set up the winner by Fiore.

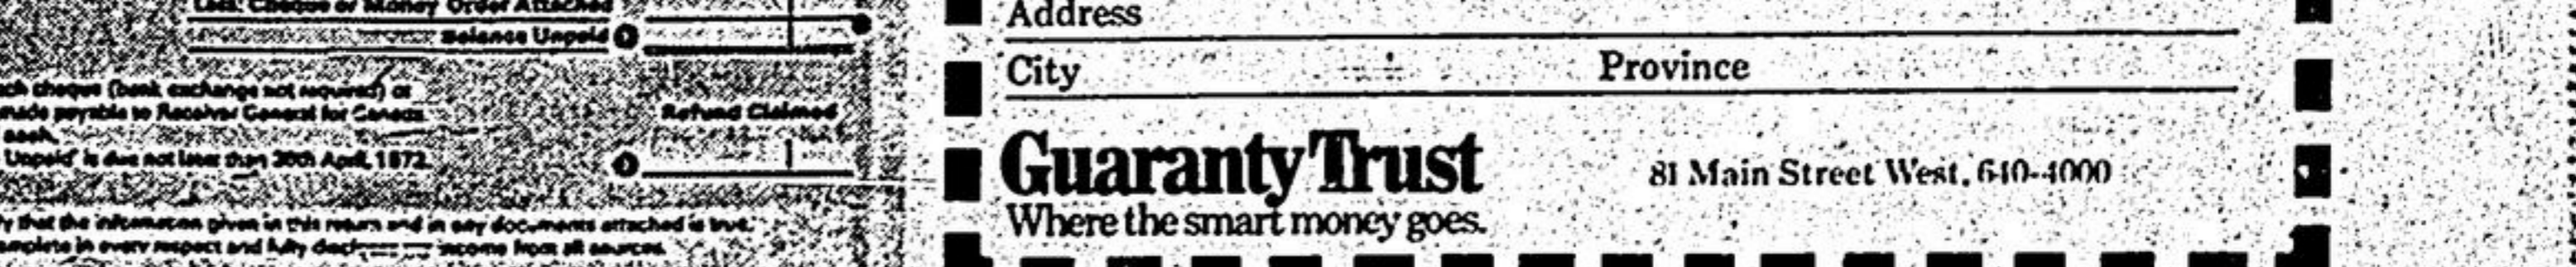

Playing without the services of defenceman Wayne Norton, Coach Tarr utilized his defence corps, depleted as they
