

"Spring is in the air"

When Mike Gerhardt of The Tribune set out last week on a pictorial assignment to capture the First Signs of Spring, he was determined to come up with something 'special' — like a little black and white 'pussycat', out for a stroll along 18th Avenue, Markham. Mike took this single shot, through an open side window, then drove quickly 'out of range'.

Librarian's logbook

Whitchurch-Stouffville Public Library posted a money order to Ungesco recently. This was the money collected by the bank on our counter during 1972, for International Book Year. It will be used for books and educational projects in the developing countries. The amount collected was $8.65 — not bad when you remember that pennies were contributed.

Our annual grant of adult books from the Central Ontario Regional Library System has arrived. In the 195 books there is fiction and non-fiction. The latter has an especially good variety: cooking, fishing, ecology, drama, true crime stories and travel guides. In biography, we call to your attention the volumes about Lester "Mike" Pearson, Harry S. Truman and Virginia Wolf. "The Barn" has beautiful pictures of a vanishing landmark and shows barns in this area. If you don't find your choice on our shelves you may place a reserve or a library loan, free of charge.

To amend Bylaw

STOUFFVILLE

The status of the municipality's Zoning Bylaw (72-7) which was passed, Jan. 18, 1972, has been in doubt ever since the airport proposal froze large tracks of land in Whitchurch-Stouffville.

The amended Bylaw, when approved by the Ontario Municipal Board, will be circulated to residents and landowners in the reduced area.
