Sixteen year old Debbie McCartney of Dickson's Hill, is a Grade 11 student at Stouffville Dist. Secondary School and The Tribune's 'Teen Pick of the Week'.

Teen Pick of the Week

A 'model' student

DICKSON'S HILL — A career in modelling or an airline stewardess, are the aspirations of 16 year old Debbie McCartney, Millrace Court, Dickson's Hill.

Debbie has already accepted several modelling assignments for television commercials and catalogues, and loves the work. She's a Grade 11 student at Stouffville Dist. Secondary School and The Tribune's 'Teen Pick of the Week'. location is 'heaven on earth'. With fresh air, little traffic and no noise, she's completely happy. Originally, she lived in East York, moving with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Donald McCartney to Drakefield Road, where the school is smaller and the students were friendlier. Home Economics is her favorite subject. She's also an enthusiastic sportsgirl, liking just about every kind of recreation including swimming, skiing (water turned-country-girl, the city and snow), and horseback riding.

Rural Economist

Randy Alcorn of Aurora visited The Tribune Office, Thursday, with a well preserved copy of what was known back in 1885 as The Rural Economist, Markham's weekly newspaper. The issue was listed as Vol. 1, No. 51, and the subscription rate was $1 per year, payable in advance.

Tickets Available

Reserved seat tickets are still available for Music Mania '73, April 27 and 28 at the High School. They may be purchased at: Card's Hardware, Main Street, Stouffville or set aside by calling Mrs. Ian Chapman (640-2720).

Retires

Miss Mabel Hoover, Mill Street, has retired from the Stouffville Bakery after 28 years 'behind the counter'. She joined the sales staff back in June 1945.

Better Health

Mrs. Norm Brillinger, Rupert Avenue, is up and around again, after suffering a back ailment that confined her to bed for a time.

Named Chairman

Dr. Blair Mitchell, Orchard Park Blvd., Stouffville, has been named Chairman of the #### newly-organized District Health Council

to serve the communities of Unionville, Markham and Stouffville.
