

'Living in luxury'

A family of kittens are enjoying the comforts of a foster home, at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Don Wherry, Paddock Road.

R.R. 2, Claremont. And for a nap, this little guy chooses the luxury of a cushion and cradle. Who said it's a dog's life? Jim Thomas.

CLAREMONT — Almost 100 fellow workers and friends attended a retirement party at Claremont Legion in honor of Orville Cox, May 4. Mr. Cox retired last month after many years with Pickering Township Roads Dept. He was presented with a vibrator lounge chair, engraved table lighter and a replica of the truck he drove for the Department.

Mr. and Mrs. Russ Pilkey, parents of Earl Pilkey, have returned from Florida where they spent the winter months. The Claremont Rangers Group held a successful bake sale in the Community Hall, Saturday. The evening dance for children 8-14 years, was also well attended. Joe Empringham, who was released from hospital Saturday, will be confined to bed at home for a few weeks. Mrs. Jean Hamilton, also released from hospital, is recuperating at home.

Brougham Womens Institute will sponsor a fashion show, and a film presentation by Walt Atkinson of slides taken on his trip to Russia, May 11, at 8:30 p.m. in Brougham United Church. Proceeds from a silver collection will go to a school for the handicapped.

Members of Claremont Legion were winners of both euchre and cribbage trophies, Friday evening, at Markham Vets. Club. Competitions between Claremont, Unionville and Markham have been held once a week, during the winter.

Mr. and Mrs. Randy Carruthers, Stan Tweedie and Aldine Hamlin, attended a wedding, at the Holiday Inn, in Yorkdale, last week.
