STOUFFVILLE SCENE

What's going on

Newcomers welcomed
Mrs. Charlotte Simonds, 'official greeter' for Welcome Wagon, called on the following newcomers to Stouffville recently: Mr. and Mrs. Paul Dickens, 367 Stouffer Street, and formerly of Scarborough; Mr. and Mrs. D. Jordan, 295 Main Street East, formerly of Peterboro; and Mr. and Mrs. Ed Davis, 192 Second Street, formerly of Willowdale.

Bake Sale
A Bake Sale, sponsored by the Stouffville Brownies, Girl Guides and Rangers, will be held at the Civic Square, Sat., May 19, beginning at 10 a.m.

Kinette Executive
Donna Sanders is the president-elect of the Stouffville Kinette Club. Officers were named at a meeting, May 3, at the Altona Community Centre. The executive also includes: Jackie Slack, 1st vice-president; Barb Morley, 2nd vice-president; Lois Holder, secretary; June Hopper, treasurer; Sylvia English, registrar; Maris Anderson and Clara Harman, directors. The immediate past president is Pat Beaton.

Mrs. Audrey Webb, Maystone Court, is feeling much improved following her recent illness.

To Kingston
Mrs. Joan Hetherington, Sunset Blvd., motored to Kingston, to visit her sister and family, Mr. and Mrs. Tackaberry.

Open House
The Altona Nursery School is holding an 'Open House' Friday, May 11, from 10:30 to 12 noon. Pre-registrations will be accepted for the September term.

Museum Auxiliary
An attempt is being made to organize an auxiliary committee to the Whitechurch Stouffville Museum. The Museum site is the former Bogartown Public School, on the cutoff road to Newmarket.

To England
Mrs. Ted Cadieux and daughter Trudy are planning a trip to England and Scotland this month, travelling by air both ways.

Farm tour
The children of St. James' Presbyterian Church Sunday School enjoyed an 'afternoon on the farm', Saturday, when they visited the country home of Mr. and Mrs. Alan Powell, 19th Avenue, Dickson's Hill, and the adjoining property of John and Paul Grove, Markham, R.R. 2.

To Flint, Mich.
Ed Grimshaw, Main Street West, a sergeant on the security force at the G.M. branch plant, Eglinton Avenue, is in Flint, Michigan this week, taking a course in fire prevention.

The photograph in the display window of Cadieux's Studio, this week, needs no introduction to folks in Stouffville. It's K. Ross Shine, Davis, Church Street. Mr. Davis recently celebrated his 84th birthday.

College graduates
Congratulations to Charleen Brown, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Brown, Stouffville, and Karen Jones, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ken Jones, Dickson's Hill, both graduates of Emmanuel Bible College, Kitchener. The ceremony was held, Sunday and attended by members of both families.

Clothing Centre
The Markham Clothing Centre is conducting its Spring Sale, Thursday, March 24, from 1 to 3:30 p.m., in St. Andrew's United Church Hall, in Markham. Items will include nearly new summer clothing for all ages, toys, baking and refreshments. Inquiries are welcome at the Centre, 118B Main Street or by calling 294-4915 (afternoons).

To Port Hope
Dr. and Mrs. Jerry Blackburn move this week from their home on the Stouffville-Gormley Road to Port Hope, where Dr. Blackburn will serve as veterinarian and farmer manager at a large cow-calf feedlot operation, east of the town. Jerry served on the staff of the Stouffville Veterinary Clinic prior to accepting the new post. Both he and his wife were very active in community affairs and will be missed here. Dr. Douglas Allan has joined the vet staff in Stouffville and will reside at the residence vacated by Dr. and Mrs. Blackburn.

In hospital
Mrs. Peter Ferguson is a patient in Brierbush Hospital, Stouffville. Her many friends wish her a speedy recovery.

Bridal shower
Bride-to-be, Miss Karen Taylor, was honored at a shower, held recently in the home of Mrs. Stewart Vague, Ringwood. Karen's marriage to Mr. Ryan Marshall of Stouffville will be held Saturday, in St. James' Presbyterian Church.

Liquor licence
Chris Giocos, proprietor of the Stouffville Restaurant in the A&P Plaza, has applied for a dining lounge licence, to serve liquor with meals. A hearing, in compliance with the Liquor Control Act, will be held, June 5 at 9:30 a.m., at the Board's Office, 55 Lakeshore Boulevard East, Toronto.

Cancel movie
Due to the Lions sponsored Bike-a-Thon utilizing Latham Hall, Saturday, the Children's Theatre program has been cancelled.

Spring Luncheon
A spring luncheon is planned for the lower auditorium of the Stouffville United Church, Wednesday, May 30 at 1 p.m. The guest speaker is Brigadier Mac Corquodale from the House of Concord. Admission is $1.75.

Consumer Association
The Consumer Association of Canada is active in York Region and wishes to expand its service, particularly in the Stouffville area. The local branch is meeting, Monday, May 14, at 8 p.m., in the Y.W.C.A., 59 Yonge Street North, Richmond Hill. For further information on the work of this organization, call Mrs. Ursula Shepherd, 887-5627.
