The 120-year-old Bible Christian Church at Brougham Museum was the unique setting for the wedding of Margaret Hoskins, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Regional Hoskins of Clarendon and Garnet McPherson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Donald McPherson, West Hill, May 19. The church, originally built in Pickering Twp. in 1853, was sold around 1880 when the congregation merged with the Methodist Church. It was moved to a farm where it was used for the storage of tools. Six years ago, the museum acquired the old building and relocated it on its grounds in Brougham. Chaplain, Katherine Cook of the first Unitarian Church, Toronto, performed the wedding ceremony - the first held in the Bible Christian Church for 90 years.
