Grade 12 play near excellence

STOUFFVILLE — The grade 12 Theatre Arts play "Death Takes a Holiday" was only a teaser away from being an excellent production.

The director, cast and stage crew came so close its a pity (for them and the public who didn't catch the performance) that theirs was a one-night stand.

Although the cast members were not given the opportunity to hone their acting edge in a repeat performance, some of the young actors were extremely sharp in their parts.

Sharon Trammer was undoubtedly the star performer. With a well-modulated voice and fine sense of timing on stage, she was a pleasure to watch and listen to throughout, in her role of "Grazia".

Josh Leach also merits special mention for coming through with considerable poise in the long and complicated role of "Death".

Art Latcham gets standing ovation

LEMONVILLE — Art Latcham was accorded a standing ovation by the large attendance of area residents at the official opening of Lemonville Community Centre, May 16.

Mr. Latcham had just been presented with a plaque inscribed: "In appreciation of the generosity of Mr. Art Latcham in presenting the Lemonville School to be used as a community centre. Signed — The people of the township."

Annual horse show

Last year the show attracted competitors from a wide area, with Stouffville district riders recipients of many of the trophies.

The third annual Ballantrae Horse Show will be held, May 27, at the Whitechurch Centennial Centre, Ballantrae, starting at 10:30 a.m.

Gary Peterman, guest director with Stouffville Players, points out the subtleties in Noel Goward's humor to Buntly Webb of Markham and Thelma Wrixon, Aurora, who will both appear in the local drama group's production "Present Laughter", May 31, June 1 and 2, at Latcham Hall.

Funeral Service for Clara Smith

STOUFFVILLE — Service was conducted from Wideman Menonite Church, May 6, by Noah Martin and Jacob Weber of Waterloo district, for Miss Clara Smith who passed away, May 4, at Brier Bush Hospital.

Born in Almira, she was the eldest daughter of Jacob Smith and Ella Lehman.

Miss Smith, who was in her 78th year, is survived by brothers Joseph, Abraham, John, Levi and Jacob; sisters Eva, Alma (widow of the late Carl Reesor), Ella (Mrs. Josiah Steckle). She was predeceased by her sister, Elizabeth.

Interment was made at Wideman Cemetery. The pallbearers were nephews Clarence, Earl, Harvey, Eldon, and Ernest Smith, and Clayton Steckley.

Lucille Heise, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Russell Heise, Gormley, has begun a one-year term of service with the Menonite Central Committee in McDowell, Kentucky. She is working as a nurse at the Appalachian Hospital, having formerly attended the Toronto East General Hospital School of Nursing.
