Mr and Mrs. Allan Zeller
Wed in Alliston United Church

The marriage of Karen Lynn, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John N. Darling, and Allan Lloyd, son of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Zeller of Stouffville, was solemnized at 4 p.m., April 28, in St. John's United Church, Alliston. Rev. James F. Shilton officiated.

The bride wore a full-length white chiffon gown with a flower appliqued bodice and matching cap which held her fingertip veil. She carried a bouquet of white gladiolas, yellow carnations and mauve stephanotis. The maid of honor, Miss Susan McCullagh, and bridesmaids, Miss Patricia Darling and Miss Valerie Darling, (sisters of the bride), wore full-length gowns of yellow nylon sheer dotted with tiny mauve, pink and blue flowers, over taffeta. They carried bouquets of white gladiolas, yellow pom-pom mums and statice.

Attending the groom was his brother, Ken Zeller, of Toronto. The ushers were, Warren Darling, brother of the bride, and Barry Zeller, brother of the groom, of Stouffville. The soloist was Miss Mary McRuer and the organist, Mr. Ken Inkster.

Following a reception held in St. John's United Church Hall, the guests attended a dance in the Alliston Curling Club.

Mr. and Mrs. Allan Zeller sign the register following their marriage in St. John's United Church, Alliston. The happy couple are now residing in Toronto.

Stouffville and area is experiencing a delightful few days of summer. Eager holidayers are rushing to the water for relaxation and refreshment. The highways are lined with cars filled with people, "getting away from it all" for a few hours. We are privileged to have good water for drinking and swimming.

God has been so good to our town and our land. I wonder just how many ever think to thank Him for His blessings. Could we assume any person is sincerely thankful who has no time for God or His house?

Some years ago, a woman came to a well at noon to draw water. She dare not come in the cool of the morning, or evening, lest she be driven away by her more "respectable" sisters. They had not fallen into her depths of sin. She met there a Man who offered to give her living water that would quench the inner thirsting of her life, this desire that water could not reach or satisfy. She accepted His gift and was so thrilled and satisfied that she left her water containers to run and tell. She wanted to share her new-found joy, peace and satisfaction with her former associates. She had come face to face with the Stranger of Galilee. He was no longer a stranger to her, but now was her Saviour.

Some one may say, "I wish I could meet this Man". Let me introduce you to Him. His name is Jesus Christ, the Saviour or sinners. He says, "Him that cometh to me I will in no wise cast out." "I came not to call the righteous, but sinners to repentance." My prayer is that you will let Him satisfy your thirsting heart.
