New Pentecostal Church ready for occupancy early this fall

The sod-turning for the Stouffville Pentecostal Church, Main Street East, was performed April 29. Three months later, the chapel is near completion and should be ready for occupancy early this fall. At present, Sunday services are held in the Altona Community Centre. The pastor is Rev. Stanley A. Grant. —Jim Thomas.

The Voice of Bethel

Guelph University student

Larrie Spiece, a Grade 13 graduate of Stouffville Dist. Secondary School, will attend the University of Guelph in the fall, for degree in Bachelor of Science of Agriculture. He hopes to be a veterinarian. Larrie is the son of Mr. and Mrs. K. W. Spiece, Stouffville, R. R. 3.

Pastor Howard Minaker
A few days ago, a six year old child in this area approached a lady on the beach near his home. "Do you love Jesus?" he asked. Undoubtedly surprised and irritated, she replied, "I'm not interested in such things." The child persisted, "Well, Jesus loves you." "Go away little boy," she cautioned, "and don't bother me." However, the child's heart was overflowing with the truth of how Jesus Christ, God's Son, came to this earth to show us what God was like.

He promised to conquer man's hatred, wickedness, rebellion and any other foe, with His Love. Such a seemingly absurd declaration produced man's blackest crime when he crucified the Lord of Life, pierced with a spear the Prince of Peace and crowned with thorns the Lord of Glory.

Here we see man at his worst, hatred at its peak, bitterness in its vilest essence as it beats against God's great bastion of reason, God's heart of love laid bare.

His remedy for sin. "For God so loved that He gave..." Love what? Tons of diamonds? A galaxy of planets? The sun, moon, legions of angels, archangels, cherubims or seraphim? No, a thousand times no! Nothing so insignificant or easy. God gave His Son, His only Son for your sin and for mine.

Oh, the wonder of it all! The immeasurable love that would permit the bankruptcy of Heaven to redeem such worthless creatures of the dust as you and I. Yet, consider with me another mystery. Why man, the rebel, chooses to serve Satan rather than Christ, prefers to remain in his sin, rather than righteousness, loves darkness rather than light and turns from the road to Heaven to continue on the road to Hell.

But God has appointed a day in which will judge the world by Jesus Christ. Then the door of mercy will have closed. The day of salvation will be over and the Saviour will be the Judge.
